Mr., Mrs. Winston C. Fuller On Honeymoon in Carmel

On Saturday evening at 8:30, Miss Donna Isbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Isbell, 1516 Beech Ave. approached the altar of the First Methodist Church on the arm of her father to recite her wedding vows with Winston C. Fuller. The Sid W. Fullers of La Canada are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a French Chantilly lace creation with a scoop neckline, three quarter sleeves and a full skirt with scalloped hemline which fell into a chapel train. A pearl tiara held her silk illusion veil and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Margie Hoth was the maid of honor wearing aqua organza and carrying a crescent of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Carolyn Ciaccios, Kay Hangartner, Diane Kerber, and Margot Footes. All were gowned in aqua organza and their crescent bouquets were made of pale pink roses.

Little Sibbie Ansley in pink organza was the flower girl.

Richard Peterson stood as best man and ushers were Russell Hansen, Bill Schmieder, Tom Arnold and Don Gaspard.

Rev. G. S. Zimmerman, pastor, and Col. J. F. Isbell, grandfather of the bride, officiated at the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. Eva Brundin, organist, furnished the nuptial music and accompanied Joe Navak who sang "I Believe."

A reception for the 250 guests was held at the church with Mrs. Tony DeMattio registering the guests.

After a honeymoon in Carmel, the couple will be at home at 4608 Hillard Ave., La Canada.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High and is a senior at USC majoring in physical education.

Mr. Fuller is a student at the school of pharmacy at USC.
