Student Workers Rated Well by Area Employers

Questionnaires returned by more than 330 employers indicate Torrance High school students who work part-time are generally doing good work, according to a recent report to the Board of Education.

the Board of Education.

More than 90 per cent of the employers felt that the students were adequately prepared in English, math, and general job skills, the report indicated. In rating the students' performances dents' performances as a whole, employers said 19 per cent were outstanding, 53 per cent good, 26 per cent average, and two per cent below average.

Students worked in more students worked in more than 70 different types of jobs, including such positions as box boys, clerks, service station at-boys, clerks, service station attendants, stock boys, cooks, truck drivers, orderlies, janitors, receptionists, and others. One student made lampshades, while another was assigned the task of feeding birds.

Most employers felt that their students could accept responsibility; generally got along with other employees; were punctual, honest, and discreet; and could work without being closely supervised. Two-CHIP STAMPS being closely supervised. Two-thirds indicated that they felt that the students were interested in doing a good job not only because of money.

BLUE CHIP STAMPS Traffic Toll Leads 1959. CHP Reports

With the year 1960 at the three-quarter mark, traffic deaths in California stood at a total of 2664, or 107 more than during the same nine-month period last year, Highway Pa-trol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said this week. As of Sept. 30, there were 1628 traffic deaths recorded in unincorporated areas 1038 in unincorporated areas, 1036 in cities.

"It would be routine to point out that both population and vehicle registrations are higher than last year, and that a climb in fatalities might be expected," he said.

"We should never 'expect' a fatality increase. The 107 more

"We should never expect a fatality increase. The 107 more persons killed on our highways this year died just as needless as the balance of the The causes remain the same.

Excessive speed is the leader, followed by right of way violations, improper turns and drinking drivers. Because more drinking drivers. Because more have died, it is incumbent upon you, the driving public, to pay even stricted heed to traffic laws and the basic law of the roadway, courtesy," the commissioner said.
