Chaplain to Speak Sunday

Harbor General Hospital's Chaplain Penner will be guest speaker at the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services at the Del Amo Baptist Church, 3708 Del Amo Blvd.

A chaplain at the hospital where he has been serving and counseling the sick for more than nine years, the Rev. Mr. Penner has been an inspiration to thousands.

He toured Europe and the Scandinavian countries recently, and will speak of his travels during Sunday's services here.

JWV Post Co-sponsors Spook Dance

The South Bay Post No. 777, Jewish War Veterans of the United States is cosponsoring an annual Halloween ball with Post 593 of Long Beach.

The ball will be held Saturday night, Oct. 29th starting at 8:30 at Temple Sinai, Seventh and Molino Sts., Long Beach. Wearing of costumes is optional but there will be prizes for the best dressed. Games, dancing, and fun will be the order of the night.

Tickets are available from all post members. Proceeds will go toward the post veteran rehabilitation fund.

Groups Make Good Use of City Schools

More than 900 permits for use of Torrance School facilities were granted to various community organizations in off-hours this quarter, according to a recent report to the Board of Education.

Leading users were Boy and Girl Scout groups, Brownies, and Campfire Girls, with 74 groups accounting for 706 permits. Other users included the Torrance Recreation Department, UCLA extension courses, Little Leagues, and a variety of other groups.

Two Dozen New Father and Son 'Y' Groups Set

Twenty-four new YMCA father and son groups will be inducted into the Torrance YMCA tomorrow evening in colorful Indian-style ceremonies.

270 fathers and over 300 sons will recite together the aims, slogan and purpose of the Y-Indian Guides before big and little "braves" from 70 Torrance Y-Tribes.

Leonard Kane, Chief of the Torrance Y-Guides, will lead the Indian induction which includes wigwags, warpaint, tom toms, and feathers of every hue.

THE NEW groups were formed by the YMCA in recent meetings for all first, second and third grade boys in Torrance and Lomita schools. The national Y program calls for both dads and sons to take part in the program together. The new redskins will hear sage advice from old "Sachems" who will represent the four winds of life and words also from the Great Spirit.

AFTER THE brief ceremony, the fathers and sons will enjoy the Naida Indian Dancers from San Fernando Valley.

The event will be held at the Torrance YMCA at 2080 Washington Ave. at 7 p.m. Friday, and is open to all fathers and sons who wish to attend. Further information about Y-Indian Guides may be obtained by calling the YMCA at FR 8-1272.

2 High School Students Enter Award Testing

Two local high school students were named semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition, while 11 others received letters of commendation, according to word received by school officials.

Alan G. Sherry and Charles A. Levy, students at South High, were named semifinalists. They will take a second exam in December to establish their eligibility for higher awards. Some 32,000 top students from all parts of the country took the test. Receiving letters of commendation were Elizabeth Ann Emanuel, South; Richard Hardesty, South; Donald Hickman, South; Gene Knoblauch, North; John Terry Kruso, South; Jon George Lehr, Torrance; Robert Lundy, North; Bruce McIntyre, South; John Orr, Torrance; Lauretta Wallace, South; and Philip Shaw, South.

Harbor Area Residential Goal for Chest: $42,142

Housewives from cities in the Harbor Area met recently at a Residential briefing session for Community Chest volunteers held at the Plush Horse Inn. Over 200 women were present at this meeting when the Harbor Area Residential Goal of $42,142 was announced.

Host Jim Becker, Harbor Area chairman, welcomed the ladies and explained how necessary the Residential campaign was in attaining the total $12,000,000 goal for Greater Los Angeles. "Some 170 separate agencies will benefit from this year's campaign," Becker said.

In a recent statement concerning this same topic Ernest Loebecke, Community Chest campaign chairman, said, "Many who give through Associated In-Group Donors, or the radio and television charities, or the Permanent Charities Committee of the Motion Picture Industry do not realize they help to support 170 different organizations through the Chest."

"Somehow, some way we have to get these fundamental facts over to the community. If we do this, and enlist enough workers to go out and ask people to give enough, we will raise what we should," he said.

Marshall L. Adams, son of Howard Adams Sr. of 22933 Galva, Torrance, graduated from recruit training Oct. 8 at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.
