Girl Scout Troop 2005

In memory of Juliette Low's 100th birthday a special birthday celebration was held at Alondra Park Saturday Oct. 22nd.

Taking part in this program, along with 14 other troops, was Troop 2005. Each troop represented a month of the year. Troop 2005 was the month of September and their theme was Good Grooming and Health. The girls sang "We're Working on our Health", and original song written for them for the occasion.

Members of the troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Anderson and Mrs. Ernest D'Angelo, attending were Mildred Blydenburgh, Miriam Ditch, Pamela Holley, Debbie Ferris, Milinda Crider, Melody Peralta, Shirley Neihaus, Barbara Morris, Mary Jean Breitmayer, Sharon Walker, Mulenda Dell, and Chis Anderson.

The girls enjoyed a noseball lunch at the park after the program. Cupcakes decorated in the Halloween theme were provided for the occasion by Mrs. Harris Lee. Other mothers attending with the girls were Mrs. Joseph Peralta, Mrs. Barry Crider, Mrs. Truitt Barryman, and Mrs. Frank Blydenburgh and Mrs. Bert Ferris.

The girls are now hard at work on their proficiency badges in Indoor Safety and Health Aid. This past month has been spent in making Safety posters and discussing orally many safety measures girls their ages can practice. The girls are being helped with these particular badges by the entire family. The object being in trying to improve safety measures in the home.
