

TAKE 'ER DOWN . . . Jon Schotanus, 809 Terl Ave., prepares to man his diving station aboard the Submarine USS Romara during training exercises off Catalina. These maneuvers are held by Submarine Reserve Division 11-7 of San Pedro to keep submarine reservists up to date in the techniques of modern submarine warfare.

Church Set Plans Berry Farm Visit

On Wednesday, the Senior Citizens of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., will journey to Knotts Berry Farm for a chicken dinner. The caravan of cars is scheduled to leave the church at 10:40 a.m. with Al Van Selow, minister of Christian Education, and H. Earl Kuester, pastor, accompanying the group.

The dinner, to be served on the porch of the famed dining hall, will have an "Old Timers" theme. Appropriate decorations will be on the tables. Snap shots of former years will be exchanged, and a barber shop quartet will sing. Officers who have served for the past year have been Mrs. Janie Hughes, president; Mrs. Mae Buley, secretary; Mrs. Nellie Champion, treasurer; and Mrs. Bertha McCurdy, program chairman.

Al Van Selow and Rev. Kuester have set aside the month of November to interview every member regarding his part in "The Renewal of the Church," theme for the church year. These 15-minute interviews, to be held at the church, are designed to give individual spiritual guidance, and to aid in the strategic placement of each individual in the life and service of the church.
