Red Nichols and his golden cornet were enthusiastically welcomed back to the Marine-land Restaurant in Palos Ver-des last week when he and his famous band, the Five Pennies, opened a five-week tablish ment's "Porpoise Room,"

Jump n' Jack, 2900 Pacific Coast Hwy., will preside over open house festivities tonight as the popular meeting place celebrates its third anniversary. The Jump n' Jack is a favorite spot for parties, club meetings, and group meetings in addition to offering popular luncheon and chuck wagon dinner menus.

Among the thrilled first-nighters was a host of old friends who nostalgically re-called listening to the all-time star of American jazz some 20 or 30 years ago.

Dear Friends and Customers

Anniversary time is always an occasion for a gala celebration but more than that, it is also a time to reflect upon the warm friendships one has enjoyed over the years.

Today, Thursday Nov. 3, is just such a time! Won't you join in the fun and celebration of our 3rd anniversary at the Jump 'n' Jack Chuck Wagon Restaurant? We'll be so very glad to greet you and serve you the finest in cuisine and liquors.

For this event, we have a special menu featuring superb Charcoal Broiled Steaks, Lamb Chops, and mouth-watering side dishes. Steak Dinners ranging from $3.25 to $4.95.
