FIRST HIRING ORDER . . . for employees to work in The Garrett Corp. new AResearch Facility in Torrance was placed last week with the Torrance Department of Employment by Robert L. Ehinger, personnel manager, center. The order was for three guards to serve on the plant protection force which is headed by Robert Lake, chief of plant protection, right. Francine Pouey, employment security officer in Torrance, accepts the order. Most employees in the new facility will be transferred from AResearch's present facility at Century and Sepulveda Boulevards. However, Ehinger pointed out that any requirements for additional employees will be sought through the Torrance Department of Employment.

College Sets First Drama For Season

With the English countryside as its setting, "Ladies in Retirement" will be the initial major play scheduled for production at El Camino College this season. Performances will be represented Nov. 18 and 19. An arena theatre production, the play will be given in the Green Room of the Campus Theater with curtain time scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

Starring in the play, a story which occurs in the 1940's will be Miss Midge Kohiman of Hermosa Beach. Active in college theatricals last year, Miss Kohlman will play the role of the heroine, Ellen Creed, who seeks to protect two insane sisters from the cruelty of the world around them.

Enacting the parts of the sisters are Miss Marianne Schmidt of Torrance and Miss Gail Wilkins of Manhattan Beach.

Lenora, Emily's employer, will be played by Mrs. Lillian Browning of Manhattan Beach. Roles of Lucy and Albert will be taken by Miss Caroline Nowell of Torrance and Cliff Potts of Manhattan Beach.

Missionary To Africa Here Sunday

The Rev. Herbert Nelson, who has spent the last seven years as a missionary in Africa, will speak at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., on Sunday morning at the 8:30 service and the 11 service.

Pastor Nelson, who graduated from St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota, and Lutheran Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minn., will also speak to the Sunday School on Sunday morning and to the youth of the church on Sunday evening.

Sunday will complete the special Mission Emphasis Week with Pastor Nelson. On Tuesday evening the Sunday School Teachers learned of the Christian Education in Africa. Colored slides, films, special music and Pastor Nelson's presentation highlighted Wednesday evening's Family Night.

The campaign to help each mentally retarded person develop to the height of his potential is being led by the National Assn. for Retarded Children. Located in New York, NARC, has 800 member units, composed of parents and others interested in fighting Mental Retardation. The NARC Research Fund sponsors studies at leading universities which, with those carried on by the Federal government, it is hoped will uncover more means of preventing mental retardation.
