Accountants Pick Samson For Office

The Long Beach Chapter of the National Association of Accountants announces the election of Clifford H. Samson to the office of vice president. He has been a Torrance resident for the past 10 years, residing at 1326 Date Ave. Samson is a charter member of the Chapter which was formed in 1953. He is plant controller of the Rome Cable Division of Alcoa and has been employed by that concern for 23 years. The National Association of Accountants is the world's largest and most active association whose services are designed especially for persons in the accounting field.

Slim-Trim Classes Open

Two new slim-trim classes for women have been started at the Walteria and McMaster Parks, according to the Torrance Recreation Department. The Walteria group, which has a class for tots over 3 years meets Wednesdays at 9:30 a.m. The McMaster session meets Wednesdays at 1 p.m. for volleyball and exercise. There is no fee for either class. Walteria Park is at 3855 W. 242nd St. while McMaster is at 3024 W. Artesia Blvd.

Holiday Dinners Set For The Pen and Quill

Holiday dinners claiming Pilgrim heritage will be featured Thanksgiving Day, beginning at 3 p.m., at the Pen and Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach. The festive menu will proudly lead off with roast young tom turkey, offered on the complete dinner for $3.35, and and luxuriously served with all the traditional trimmings.

In 1959, drivers 19 years of age and younger were involved in 12.7 per cent of all highway accidents reported in California, the California Highway Patrol reports.
