

Tickets on Sale For Address by Mrs. Roosevelt

Tickets for the December 6 lecture by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt on the campus of El Camino College are currently available in the college book store.

General admission for Mrs. Roosevelt's discussion of "Is America Facing World Leadership?" will be $1. The program will start at 8:30 p.m. in the college gymnasium.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who occupied the White House as First Lady for a period longer than any other woman, has served as a United Nations diplomat and as chairman of the Commission on Human Rights. She is a journalist in her own right, her column, "My Day," appearing in many papers of the nation.

The former first lady has circled the globe five times and has advised women's groups in Pakistan, visited Nehru in India and chatted with the Emperor and Empress of Japan.

Her travels and her work with the UN have left Mrs. Roosevelt with an attitude toward foreign relations that combines an almost hard-boiled realism with a profound faith that Americans can do what has to be done if they will only recognize needs as they exist.

Filmed Tour Of Russia To Be Shown

"This is Russia," a cinema tour of the Soviet Union, will be shown here twice Friday under auspices of the Torrance Recreation Department and the Los Angeles County Museum.

Screenings are slated for 7 and 8:30 p.m. in the council chambers at City Hall, 3031 Torrance Blvd. Admission is free.

The film takes the viewer from the Baltic to Eastern Siberia in a sweeping study of the land and its people. The picture's producer, Sid Feder, was arrested seven times while photographing "forbidden" subjects.

Women today rank companionship first among reasons for marriage, according to the December Reader's Digest. Second is the chance to have children; third, understanding and emotional support; fourth, love and affection; and fifth, financial benefit. These are the findings of a recent study by University of Michigan investigators.

LITTLE PEANUTS . . . The fantasy, "Tony Beaver," a show for children of all ages, will be presented at El Camino College as part of its Christmas Festival of Arts at the Campus Theater at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 4, and again at 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 11. Peanuts shown here, clockwise from the front, include Sheila Welt, Mary Jo French, Jeanette Kozlowsky, Caralan Nowell, Sally Yeats, and Michèle Smith.

National Level Meeting for Episcopalians

St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral, Figueroa St. at Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, will be the scene of national Church activity and legislative action Dec. 1 through 3.

The three-day program will mark the first meeting on the west coast of the National Council, the governing body of the Episcopal Church in the United States.

Council sessions Dec. 2 and 3 in St. Paul's Cathedral House will be open to all visitors who wish to learn at first hand the operations of the various council divisions in fields of missionary expansion in this country and overseas; Christian social relations in health, welfare and racial integration; Church vocations, and world relief and rehabilitation.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP of the Episcopal Church in the United States, the Most Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger of New York City, will preside at all sessions. Elected members of the council include distinguished laymen, priests and bishops from all parts of the country.

The Rt. Rev. Francis Eric Bloy, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles which includes the eight southern counties of California, has appointed a special hospitality committee to meet the Presiding Bishop on his arrival in Los Angeles. The committee is also arranging for the welcoming hospitality and accommodations of all council members and national staff.

Serving on the committee are the Rev. E. Lawrence Carter, Chairman, the Rev. Canon Robert Cornelison, the Rev. H. Parker Jones and William D. Campbell, all of Los Angeles; the Rev. Spencer Rice, San Fernando; Franklyn Donant and Mrs. Edward S. Thompson, both of San Marino; Robert C. Moriarty, South Pasadena, and William H. Siegmund, Pasadena, a member of the National Council.

El Camino Slates Annual Christmas Art Festival

Opening the second annual Christmas Festival of Arts at El Camino College will be the Dec. 4 production "Tony Beaver," described by directors as a "fantasy for children of all ages."

The Campus Theater production will start at 3 p.m., with a repeat performance being given on Dec. 11 at 7:30 p.m.

A second feature of the Dec. 4 program will be the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" by the College Music Department featuring students of instructors Crist Mikkelsen, Neil Hill, Dr. Robert Haag, and Dr. Gordon Orme. The musical program will be offered in the Campus Center at 8 p.m.

THE "MESSIAH" will be repeated on Dec. 11 at a 3 p.m. matinee performance. Added to the Dec. 11 Christmas entertainment will be the introduction of the 1960 addition to the college's famed Madonna Row.

The unveiling ceremony will occur on the lawn fronting the Administration Building at 2:15 p.m. The newest reproduction of great Christmas art has been prepared under the direction of Miss Mildred K. Walker, who was instrumental in establishing the tradition 11 years ago.

THE ROW, which will be on exhibit on Crenshaw Blvd. throughout the holiday season, features art reproductions of Madonna and Child in oil, mosaic and stained glass. Most of the art works are 8 ft. by 10 ft. in size, and all are attractively framed and lighted.

As a prelude to the unveiling ceremonies, the music department of the college will present a 15-minute program featuring the carillon bells and brass ensemble.
