Five Torrance Gridders Selected To Bay, Pioneer All-league Teams

ALL-PIONEER LEAGUE

Taylor, Holdsworth, Weimer Chosen to First Team Berths

Three Torrance High seniors were named to the first string 1960 all-Pioneer League football team this week by vote of the conferences coaches.

Two Tartars were second team choices, while two others were honorably mentioned.

Quarterback Howard Taylor, end Cliff Weimer, and center Tommy Holdsworth landed four players.

Tartars Jerry McLean, half-back, and tackle John Carlson, both juniors, were placed on the second team while halfback Mike Irvine and guard Eric Hansen, both seniors, received honorable mention recognition.

Tommy Holdsworth landed first string berths for their efforts during Torrance's first championship season this fall. The Tartars tied Culver City on any one candidate to boost for all-CIF recognition. Lawndale High was not represented at the meeting.

The all-league teams:

Segundo dominated the 12player squad with four first team selections, including two players in the backfield.

There were no unanimous votes cast for any of the 12 positions, filled by 10 seniors and two juniors, although five gridders fell one vote shy of unanimous selection.
