THE TORRANCE HERALD DECEMBER 1, 1960

Muscular Dystrophy Volunteers To Ring Doorbells Here Sunday

HOME MADE BREAD NEW DINING AREA 2069 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita OPEN 24 HOURS Corner of Oak DA 6-80

be transferred to San Bernar-dino if the Air Force carries out its plan to operate the or-well as throughout the country.

"More than 1000 people ganization from two locations," dispersal action for several tion is now being studied by members of his congressional closed today. The Air Force last week as move.

King Says Air Force to Transfer 1000 If Missile Shift Continues

The veteran legislator has

SO FAR the Air Force has not revealed the fact that their not revealed the fact that their planned break-up of the Ingle-wood Complex includes relo-cation to San Bernardino of the entire Air Materiel Com-mand Ballistic Missiles Center, portions of the Ballistic Missile Division, Space Technology Laboratories, and other sup-porting elements. "The plan to split the Missile Complex into two locations will involve the transfer of more than 1000 workers — not 100 — from 27 units in Inglewood to Norton Air Force Base. "AIR FORCE plans then car

"AIR FORCE plans then can for the Missile Complex to con-tinue operational functions as an integrated organization from two locations — divided by 70 miles distance.

"No one in the Air Force, "No one in the Air Force, including the Secretary, has so far explained how breaking-up the Inglewood Ballistic Missiles Complex, at a cost of some $10 million dollars, will help speed up or make more efficient the workings of this most crucial program. "The Air Force has been as-

"The Air Force has been as-signed the grave responsibility of directing and managing the Nation's ballistic missiles pro-gram, and I believe that a project of this importance needs checking into when it appears to be heading in a wrong direction."

Great Western Fetes 39 With Service Awarde

Thirty-nine employees of Great Western Savings and Loan Association were honored Loan Association were nonored recently at the company's First Annual Service Award Ban-quet. The thirty-nine employ-ees from Great Western's seven Los Angeles offices represented more than 400 years of con-tinuous service to the comtinuous service to the com-pany. John F. Marten, president of the association, opened the banquet at the Cockatoo Inn by remarking "each of you here must feel a great sense of achievement in attaining a laud-able milestone. The success Great Western now enjoys is certainly due to the personal effort by each of you and we are proud to honor you here tonight."

tonight." Making the presentations at the banquet was Emil J. Se-liga, executive vice president of Great Western. Recipient of the Outstanding Service Award for 15 years of employment with Great Western was Patri-cia Gentile, head of the pur-chasing section. chasing section.

OTHER SERVICE awards went to the following em-ployees: Augusta Walker, Char-les Slechta, Marie Kluge a Mildred Bacon, 12 years; Mol Allison and Marge Kennedy, 11 years; Howard Van Leer, Fred Strohmenger, Frank Vav-roch, and Lucy Collins, 10 years; Thomas Morford, nine years; Beverly Honaker, Joseph Zumer, Charles Riach and John Goeglein, eight years; Helen Corbin, Betty Brennan and Marge Siglin, seven years; Bil-lie Bowick, Harold Fulton and James Allen, six years; John F. Marten, Palmer Briggs, Deane Sanders, Paul Voyt, James Hagerty, John Machado, Joseph Mitchell, Barbara Nona, Madel-ue Winen, Berty Morder Hagerly, John Machado, Joseph Mitchell, Barbara Nona, Madel-ine Wilson, Deane MacLean, Marilyn Kirk, Elmer Atchley, Ken di Palma, Diane Cox, Diane Leong, Lois Martin and Jean Sakai, five years. MARINE GLASS CO.

GLASS FOR

EVERY PURPOSE

130 West 5th San Pedro TE 3-2481

PL Her peribe lap up odo Her har sur wit for woot tint FL A be or

DE

San wor Cha apr as

TR

UP

T

Mai hea wit to we

A all inte cell