Car Clubbers Spend Busy Week Helping Santa Claus

At least one Torrance area family is going to have a full table for Christmas that they didn't expect, thanks to the work of a dedicated group of young men organized as the Criterion Car Club of Torrance.

For several week ends, the car clubbers have been soliciting all the fixings for a Christmas dinner for the family, which includes four children, and have gathered clothing and toys to be given to the little ones Christmas morning.

IN ADDITION, the young men have spend a couple of Sundays collecting canned goods and material for other families which will be distributed in cooperation with local agencies, according to Jack Tarney, president of the club. The club is associated with the Torrance Police Car Clubs Associated, along with other Torrance car clubs, and conducts many of its activities under the direction of police officers who serve as advisors.

ASSISTING Tarney with the club are Chuck Gaetani, vice president; Ken Brocklesby, secretary; and Lance Moore, treasurer.

Other officers of the club include Carl Economy, historian, and Tony Gaetani, sergeant-at-arms.
