Southeast Dist. Bowling Set at South Bay Bowl

The Southeast District Bowling Association is intensifying its drive to make its 25th Bowling Tournament a record breaker, both in entries and prize money.

To achieve this goal the association has changed its 20 year old format of two classifications to only one division like the state and ABC tournaments. This change will double the prize money. For example, last season first place in "A" team event paid $240 and with the same 336 entries on a 10-to-one ratio the award will be $480 this year. The same increase will apply in the doubles, singles, and all-events.

South Bay Bowl received the bid for the 25th Annual event, competing with a number of other houses in Southern section of the District. Pete Spilos, president of the Bowling Pro-

The entire squad will report to the Polo Grounds in the California resort city for workouts due to begin the following day.

Season Starts With Expected Wins

Torrance Recreation Department's Church Basketball League started its first season of play Thursday evening in the Torrance High School's Boys Gymnasium.

In the opening game, Frank Christie scored 14 points to lead the South Bay Church of God to a 48-19 win over Torrance First Lutheran Church. Al Swanson bucketed 13 for the Lutheran's.

In the second game, Hermosa Nazarene's Gray Holly dunked 20 points to lead his team to a 40-24 victory over a younger Rolling Hills Covenant Church team. Bob Bunch, of the losers, put on a one man scoring show, as he poured 19 points through the nets with seldom a missed attempt.

St. James scored an easy 46-21 win over a strong Community Baptist Church team in the final game of the night. Jim Childers hitting for 19 for St. James and Dave Bernhard 9 for the Baptists.
