

CHARLES GRAY
On Screens Tonight

Local Theater Leader Due for TV Spot Tonight

Charles Gray, well-known Torrance personality, will debut in the new CBS network series "Gunslinger" tonight at 9 on Channel 2.

Gray, whose mother Cecilia Gray lives at 720 1/2 Acacia Ave., directed several plays for the Torrance Accent Theater and a number of local actors have appeared in his productions at the Hermosa Beach Pier Playhouse.

The role played by the star is that of Pico McGuire, a Mexican-Irish outsider. This is a switch from his usual Hollywood acting pattern as he is naturally a blonde. Tony Young plays the title role of the "Gunslinger" and also featured in the cast is Preston Foster as Captain Wingate.

Presidents of Area Demo Club To Hear Bailey

Roger West, president of Torrance Democrats Inc., will eb among South Bay Democratic Club leaders to be honored at the fifth annual FDP Dinner, "A Salute to President Kennedy," scheduled Feb. 18 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

Speaker at the $25-per-plate dinner will be John M. Bailey, newly elected Democratic National Committee Chairman. Bailey assumed office following Kennedy's inauguration and will be making his first major appearance as national chairman.

AMONG South Bay presidents attending are:

Jeffery Hare, Peninsula Club; Dr. Richard Roberts, Silver Spur; Gilbert Wilhite, Prospect Heights Club; Hermosa Beach; John Insocho, Manhattan-Hermosa Club; Gus Anastassiou, Hollywood Riviera; Ted Bluestein, El Segundo; and Mrs. Hughie Enser, Playa del Rey Democratic Women.

More than 250 club presidents and grass-roots workers will be honored.

CHAIRMAN for the event in the 46th Assembly District is Charles P. Shoner, a member of the county central committee, state central committee and former president of the Gardena Valley Democratic Club.

Tickets for the event may be obtained by calling Sohner at FRontier 4-4546 or Fred Allen, co-chairman, at FRontier 7-2082.
