

HOME ON LEAVE . . . Radioman Seamah Neil Robert Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Schroeder, 4905 Marion Ave., is spending leave with his family before beginning his duties in Communications Center on Terminal Island. Seaman Schroeder, aged 18, attended South Torrance High before enlisting in the Navy on Feb. 13, 1960; completed boot camp in San Diego; was transferred to the Naval base at Bainbridge, Md., where he attended radio school and graduated Feb. 10. He will report to Terminal Island Naval base on March 2, where he will be permanently stationed.

Armed Forces

Army Pvt. John C. Durlington of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Durling, 433 Viala Soledad, is receiving eight weeks of advanced individual training at The Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla., which is scheduled to end Feb. 17.

Durling is being trained in the duties of a cannoneer with the 105-millimeter howitzer, a light field artillery weapon. The school, which has as its motto, "skill is better than luck", emphasizes leadership and the practical application of field artillery tactics and techniques in the employment of artillery mortars, conventional cannon, free rockets and guided missiles.

The 20-year-old soldier entered the Army in October 1960 and completed basic training at Fort Ord, California.

Durling is a 1959 graduate of Baltimore (Md.) Polytechnic Institute, and attended El Camino College.

He was employed by the U.S. Science Corp., Los Angeles, before entering the Army.

Pvt. Paul Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Myers, 25925 Narbonne, Lomita, was assigned as a truck driver at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington, D. C., Jan. 25.

Myers was last assigned at Fort Ord, where he received basic combat training.

The 17-year-old soldier attended Narbonne High School.

Marine S/Sgt. Alfred J. Olsen, son of Mrs. Margaret Findlay of 1127 Greenhedge, and husband of the former Miss Frances E. Wilczewski of Jacksonville, Fla., completed the 16-week Repair Shop Machinist course, Jan. 31, at the Ordnance School, Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va.

The course consists of practical training in the production of parts used in all Marine Corps weapons. In addition, the technique of welding and heat treatments are studied.
