

INDIAN HOGAN . . . Mrs. Roxy Battles' sixth grade class at Anza School has been studying about Indians of both North and South America, doing research on histories and lives of America's earliest residents. They also have re-created some of the homes and customs. Here, Roger Roseberry, Linda Daggett, and Mrs. Battles stand by an Indian hogan and models of the pueblo homes of some of the Southwest Indians.

Cub Scout Pack 785

Cub Scout Pack 785, sponsored by the St. Catherine Labourer Catholic Church gave "Cub Scout of the Month" awards to Chuck Mann and Frederick Galassi, at their last meeting. The flag ceremony led by Mark Judd and the opening prayer led by David Lockwood opened the meeting. Cub Master Bennett Smith announced that all the den mothers and committee workers should attend the parents meeting held every first Thursday of the month to discuss plans for future activities. Smith introduced Joseph Herzog, who will be the new Cub Master for the coming year, and announced that he will be assisted by Howard Paterson and Albert Morgenster. It was announced further that the Blue and Gold dinner would be held in February, and the details and date would be announced at a future meeting of the committee workers.

The following boys were presented awards:
Den Two: Steve Hull, wolf badge and 1 year pin; Dave Lockwood, 1 year pin; Steve Lockwood, 1 year pin, gold arrow; Dan Thompson, 1 year pin; Craig Raiche, 1 year pin; Pat Sampier, 1 year pin; Steve Ritter, 1 year pin. This den is under the direction of Mrs. Earl Sampier, Den Mother, and Mr. Earl Sampier, acting Committeeman.

Den Four: Mark Kearns, silver arrow; Tommy Tout, two silver arrows; Tyrone Nicosia, Bobcat pin; Paul Herzog, two silver arrows; Steve Riekey, wolf badge. This den is under the direction of Mrs. E. Mann and Mrs. N. Messersmith.

Den Five: Tom Cooper, Denner badge; Dwight Betts, assistant Denner; John Tully, gold arrow; Fred Galassi, bear badge; and Bob Ingles, gold arrow. Den Five is under the direction of Mrs. M. Paterson and Mrs. E. Betts.

Den Seven: Michael Doyle, 1 year pin, denner and wolf badge; 1 gold arrow, 2 silver arrows; David Holt, 1 year pin and wolf badge; Derek Engelbert, 1 year pin and wolf badge; John Fiorello, 1 year pin, wolf badge, 1 gold arrow and two silver arrows; Steven Skelley, assistant denner and wolf badge; gold arrow; Charles Wells, 2 year pin; Danny Skelley, wolf badge. Den Seven is under the direction of Mrs. John Skelley and Mrs. Derek Engelbert.

Den Eight: Kenneth Banks, Lyon, gold arrow and silver arrow; David Bunic, denner's badge; Carl Hanson, assistant denner and wolf badge; Edward Hayduke, wolf badge. This den is under the direction of Mrs. W. Fuller and Mrs. Dale Galbreath.

Cub Pack 240-C

Presentation of the Flag by Den 2 opened the January Pack meeting. Main topic for the evening meeting was films of Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Mexico shown and narrated by Cubmaster Don Weymouth. These films were taken by Weymouth in 1957 while he was on an assignment from RCA to Union Oil Co. to construct a communications system in Costa Rica.

Plans for the Blue and Gold Dinner were discussed and changes made for it to be held at the South High School Cafeteria, Feb. 24, at 6:30 instead of at the Union Oil Co. as previously arranged. Included on the program for the dinner will be celebrated Indian dancers. Presentation of the charter will be given to the sponsors, WALTERIA Businessmen Assn.

Six new members were inducted into the Pack. They were: Jeffrey Maxwell, Dennis Jones, Sidney Smith for Den 1; Robert Andrews, Den 2; Royce Flowers, Jr. Den 4, and Jerry Coffin, Den 6.

Awards were presented to the following boys: Butch Kohler, Wolf badge; Robert Hunter, Lion badge; Kit Carson, 1 gold and 2 silver arrows.
