

Chamber in New Locale For Meeting

For the first time in more than a year, the monthly Chamber of Commerce breakfast will convene in a new location next Tuesday morning.

Forsaking the Torrance Masonic Temple for February, the Chamber will meet at the International House of Pancakes, opened recently on the Del Amo Center, according to co-chairmen C. A. Mewborn and Cliff Nickle.

Breakfast will be served at 7:20 and free coffee will be set out for the early birds, the co-chairmen said.

Following a short program to salute the new restaurant, members of the El Camino girls choral group will entertain the early risers.

Reservations may be made at the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Armed Forces

David R. Goosey, apprentice petty officer third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Goosey of 1568 W. 222nd St., was graduated, Feb. 10, from nine weeks of Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

Apprentice petty officers are chosen from the ranks of the seaman recruits to assist Company Commanders. The selection is based on individual aptitude and leadership qualities.

Specialist Fifth Class Wayne E. Martin, whose mother, Mrs. Rosa E. Martin, lives at 17215 Falda Ave., has been assigned to the 47th Medical Platoon (Air Ambulance) a part of the 58th Medical Battalion, U.S. Army Combat Development Experimentation Center, Fort Ord.

Specialist Martin will perform duty as a medical aidman with the 47th, a unit which supports CDEC in its experiments and evaluation of the techniques, tactics and organization which will be required for the Army to insure victory over any enemy on the battlefields of the future.

Having been awarded the Purple Heart Medal, the Bronze Star and the Combat Infantryman's Badge during enlisted services from 1942 to 1945, Martin comes to CDEC from duty with an artillery missile battalion in the Pacific.

Following wartime service Specialist Martin was employed as a guard at the Nebraska State Reformatory near Lincoln prior to re-entering the service in November 1956.

Army PFC Richard D. Scott, 19, son of Richard Scott, Lomita, participated in Exercise Willow Freeze, a cold weather warfare field training exercise in Alaska, Feb. 9-18.

The exercise took place in a 1900-square-mile area of rugged arctic terrain where temperatures range to 60 degrees below zero. Units regularly stationed in Alaska, and skilled in arctic warfare, defended against the attacking 82nd Airborne Division paratroopers from Fort Bragg, N.C. The exercise culminated over six weeks of special cold weather training for the paratroopers who will return to Fort Bragg upon its completion.

Scott, a radio operator in Signal Company of the U.S. Army, Alaska, is regularly stationed at Fort Richardson, Alaska. He entered the Army in October 1958.

Scott's wife, Betty Lou, is with him in Alaska.

THE PACIFIC Fleet Amphibious Force was established by the late Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King, and is comprised of ships, landing craft, and specialized units with the mission of landing troops in assaults on hostile shores.

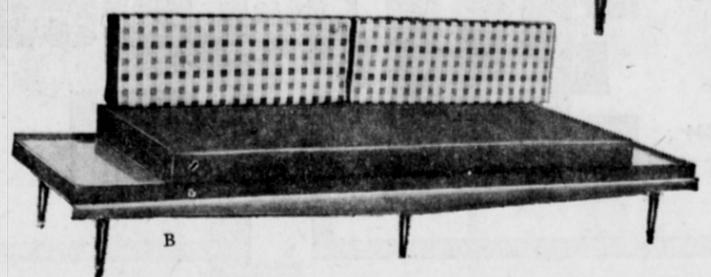

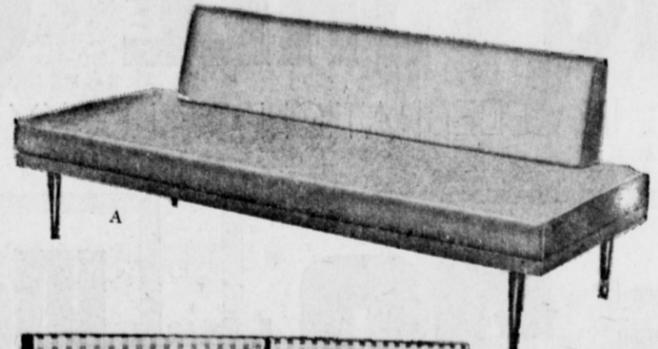

Under the command of Vice Admiral Howard A. Yeager, ships and units of the amphibious force throughout the Pacific observed the anniversary in their operating area with formal military ceremonies and open house programs in honor of force personnel and the contributions they have made to national defense.
