Marineland
Introduces
New Menu

Featuring a new and imaginatively varied selection of specialties, both a la carte and table d'hote. Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes has introduced a new menu for its patrons' dining pleasure.

George M. Foster, owner of the dining showplace, also announces that four "daily specials," each a gem of individuality and perfection, now augment the regular list of some 30 extremely selected entrees. These modestly-priced full-course dinners vary with the days of the week and cater to diversified preferences.

A number of Marineland Restaurant's all-time dinner favorites remain, including the chef's fish-and-chips and the breaded jumbo gulf-shrimp, plus other dishes which Chef John Bichler prepares, such as broiled swordfish steak, mountain trout and the dungeness cracked crab platter.

Contrasting dishes comprise the new menu. Freshly caught seafoods, prepared in many intriguing ways, are presented for fish fanciers; while chicken and charcoal broiled steaks and chops are prominently featured for landlubbers who enjoy dining beside the ocean.

PIANO-ORGAN PERFORMER . . . Playing the favorite music of diners at the Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach is popular keyboard entertainer Buddy Nolan, who this month begins his fourth year in the restaurant's cocktail lounge.

Bank Names New Director

James G. Boswell, president of the J. G. Boswell Co., Inc., has been elected to the board of directors of Security First National Bank. He fills the vacancy created by the death earlier this month of Fred B. Ortman.

The 38-year-old bank director has been president of the J. G. Boswell Co. since 1952. The company and its subsidiaries are engaged in the growing of cotton, barley and other grain crops, and cattle feeding. General operations are conducted in the San Joaquin Valley, Arizona and on the west coast of Mexico.

AMONG HIS other business affiliations, Boswell is a director of Safeway Stores, Inc. He resides in Pasadena with his wife and three children.

A World War II veteran, Boswell served in the Army from 1943 to 1946. He graduated from Stanford University in 1947.

Security Bank's board of directors also declared the usual quarterly stock dividend of 40 cents on its 7,165,862 shares outstanding, payable May 5 to shareholders of record April 18.

Music Sunday Scheduled by Local Church

April 16 is Music Sunday at Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Ave. Recognizing the importance of music to the atmosphere of church, Seaside sets this Sunday aside to give emphasis to this special ministry.

The pastor's sermon will be "Church Music: Lifting Man Up or Pulling God Down." Worship service begins at 10 a.m.
