Dr. Gaylerd Falde, president of the California District of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, will dedicate the new Sunday school building at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 West 182nd St., at 9:45 a.m. Sunday.

Others participating in the services will be The Rev. Gerald Garlid, pastor of the Lutheran Church of The God Shepherd; Mrs. Bill Sands, Sunday School superintendent; Mrs. Larry Bego, chairman of the board of parish education; Warren Bachmann, president of the congregation; Henry Gillie, chairman of the building committee; Scotty Hanson, second gardner in the Sunday School, and Pastor Maynard Midthun, pastor of the congregation.

THERE WILL BE a processional of choirs, 880 Sunday School children and the congregation into the building. Appropriate music will be sung by the Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Ellis Kenedy; by the Primary Choir, directed by Mrs. Arlo Miller; and by Janet Myren, soloist. TO HAVE SHOW . . . Miniatures and giants are the specialties of El Camino College art student Allan Ferguson, who will be honored by a one-man show of sculptured pieces at the Secondary Division Building of the Los Angeles County Schools during April.

Torrance Sculptor and El Camino Student to Have One-Man Exhibit

Allan Ferguson, El Camino College art student, will be honored by a one man show of sculptured pieces at the secondary division building of the Los Angeles County Schools during the month of April, Dr. Robert Troutman, coordinator of junior college education, announced this week.

Ferguson's work in ceramics has been described by Joseph Gadden, art instructor at El Camino, as "more than a mere physical reproduction, but the presentation in clay of mental attitudes."

"THIS MAN has a natural capacity for expressing moods and ideas in sculptured pieces that at times is so subtle and so delightful that it is beyond the scope of language to describe," Gadden said.

The exhibit will include more than 30 individual items and will represent the culmination of three years of work. The art chosen is to show Ferguson's artistic theme of "Life and Humor." The pieces include the "Arm chair philosopher," "Quick-draw" and a very un-Tonto like Indian called "Joe."

FERGUSON FIRST studied art at Leuzinger High School, put education aside to spend three years with the Navy in World War II and returned to art studies during a trip to Europe in 1947.

"I stopped off in Norway," Ferguson said, "met a girl by the name of Lillian and within six months we were married and on our way to the United States. We worked our way, she as a stewardess on board ship and I as an able-bodied seaman."

TORRANCE HAS been the Ferguson home since that working sea voyage. The 34-year-old artist, father of four children, has been working as an industrial electrician at North American Aviation for 12 years and during most of that time, he has continued the study of art.

"Sculpturing," Ferguson said, "is best described as being able to touch a picture, to hold it in your hands."

IT IS TO teach this concept and make it understandable to others that he is taking courses at El Camino in preparation for a degree in Education.

"All that I need," Ferguson said about his future, "is patience."
