Local Toastmistress Club Holds Meet at Miller Home

Regular meeting of the Lamplighter's Toastmistress club was called to order by President Jeanette Kurtz, Wednesday evening, March 23 at the home of Virginia Miller in Rolling Hills. The Pledge to the Flag was led by Helen Longpre and the inspiration was given by Betty Adams.

Table Topic Mistress Delores Tomlinson introduced subjects for impromptu speeches lasting one minute to Shirley Swanson, Helen Longpre, Lucile Reid, Pearl Stewart, Betty Adams, and Virginia Miller. Pearl Stewart won the honors and took home the Table Topic Trophy.

With the theme, "This is your Life," Toastmistress Ruth Vallivieni called upon new members Shirley Swanson, Jeanine Patterson and Viva Murphy, each speaking on their autobiography. Honors and Best Speaker Trophy were won by Viva Murphy.

Rona Jefferson, Virginia Miller and Fanchon Garner evaluated the individual speakers. Jean Schrader evaluated the entire meeting.

For the Lamplighter's, Fanchon Garner presented Wilma Hazelrigg with a pair of white gloves, the cuffs inlaid with tiny seed pearls, in gratitude for her informative speech on the Life of Louis Pasteur, given at Area Speech Contest. Mrs. W. H. Tomlinson was a guest.

Walteria Club Holds Dinner Meet

Polynesian Schedules Six Luau's

Just as festivals and feasts are a way of life in the South Seas, so they are in Torrance at the Polynesian Restaurant, which announces six spectacular Luau's to be presented this summer at the tropical dining establishment on the Coast Highway.

"Lei Day Luau," timed to coincide with Lei Day in Hawaii, will launch the luau season on Sunday, May 1.

The schedule at The Polynesian includes "Feast of the Islands," on May 22, "Tamaaraa" (Tahitian Feast) on June 26, "Let's Go Native Luau" on July 17, "Salute to Samoa" on Aug. 7 and "South Seas Festival" on Aug. 28.

These outdoor pageants will authentically duplicate the lavish native feasts, the customs and rituals of the South Pacific. The public is welcome and reservations are by advance ticket, sale at The Polynesian.

Luau's will feature continuous entertainment by a galaxy of island artists. The exotic extravaganzas include primitive dances of Tahiti, ceremonial fire and sword dances of Samoa and the traditional hulas of Hawaii.

at the Retail Clerks Hall in Harbor City.

Tickets will be sold by league mothers and will also be available at the door. The door prize will be a portable dishwasher.

Y Cruise Announced

Tying in with the theme, "Come Aboard the Member Ship," the Harbor Area YWCA will hold its Harbor Cruise for members on Monday, April 4, leaving the headquarters building, 437 West Ninth Street, San Pedro, at 12:30 p.m.

"While the cruise is planned in honor of the winning team and new members in the membership enrollment, space permitting, other YW members will be welcome," Mrs. Elmer Higgs, chairman of the San Pedro membership committee, who is in charge of the event, stated. "While there will be no charge for the cruise, those wishing to take the trip must make reservations in advance by calling their local branch office. We will take care of as many reservations as we can on the first come, first served basis," she continued. "The passengers will meet at the headquarters building at 12:30 so as to pool transportation before proceeding to the Ferry Building," she explained.
