Celebrating five years of lively square dancing, the Cornstompers' Anniversary Dance will be held Saturday, April 23, at the "Hi-Loft," 2013 Pacific Coast Highway, Lomita. Presidents Dick and Deon Mitchell announce that double dance area is being made available to accommodate the many friends of the club who will want to enjoy the spirited square dance commands of the regular caller, Gerald Resser, who will be joined by the popular caller, Jess Owens.

Refreshments will be in charge of Bob and Doreen Richter, who promise to keep them continuous throughout the evening.

Clete Ferrero together with Louise and Richard Vought are working on hall decorations appropriate for the event; and Bill Harrold, in charge of door prizes, suggests some dancers are going to be lucky as well as busy.

Round dancing starts at 8 p.m. and will be followed by continuous square dance callers.

Dear Torchey: A guy who moves his lips when he reads isn't necessarily a nit-wit, but he's reading at the small-child level. In order for him to understand, he is repeating the words to himself.

If this bothers you, suggest he take a reading course offered in many adult education programs sponsored by high schools and colleges. A simple phone call to the nearest college will tell him where to go.

Confidential to A Friend: Thank you for the suggestion. Your letter was excellent, and I can take advice as well as dish it out.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experience of thousands of teenagers if you read ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How to Live with Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
