Brownie Troop 505

Brownies of Troop 505 have made Easter Bunny Favors filled with sweets. This service project is for the children of Harbor General Hospital.

To celebrate the first birthday of the troop, the girls had a turkey dinner at the Jump 'N Jack Restaurant. All thirteen members were present including Brenda Davis, Linda Fossum, Patricia Holmes, Cathy Hostetter, Jone Jones, Sharon Lippincott, Deborah Morse, Linda Navroth, Marilyn Sanders, Jeanette Sperling, Ruth Ann Stokley, and Linda True. Each girl told what she liked best during the past year. Membership stars were awarded to all the girls for completing a year in Scouting. A pin was given to the new Co-Leader, Mrs. Carolyn Navroth.

Abalone shells donated to the troop are being polished and made into candy dishes. An interest in the abalone and the sea resulted in a trip to Marineland.

A picnic lunch was planned for Easter vacation week. The girls became more acquainted with fire-building in preparation for Day Camp this summer.

The Troop is under the leadership of Mrs. Ann Jones. It is sponsored by Sepulveda School PTA.

Cub Scout Pack 222C

For their February outing, Cub Scout Pack 222C and their parents went ice skating in Downey.

The annual pinewood derby was held in the March Pack meeting, with 1st place going to Pat Thompson, second to Walter Funk, third to Stephen Benghait, and fourth to Loy Votaw.

For their March outing, the pack went to the cinerama show, "Search for Paradise."

April 8, several of the Cubs enjoyed swimming at the Long Beach plunge.

Centuries ago, Greek farmers raised a type of wheat they called calamus—crop failure was a calamity, thus, our present word.
