

SARC to Hold Fair Saturday

Kick-off for the Southwest Association for Retarded Children building fund will be a community fair to be held Saturday in La Romeria Park, opposite the Carl Steel School on Inglewood Blvd. The fair will open at 11 a.m. and continue through 5 p.m. with entertainment and prizes.

SARC is an area organization made up of parents of, and persons interested in, retarded children and their welfare. Funds raised will be used to construct a youth activity and recreation center for these children who live in Southwest Los Angeles County. The Southwest Association is chartered and affiliated with the California Council and the National Association for Retarded Children.

The May meeting of the group will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Columbia School cafeteria, 4502 W. 186th St. Following the business session there will be a visual program on retardation, according to Mrs. Harold McBride, publicity chairman for the local association, who added that the public is invited and child care will be provided during the meeting.
