"Jumping Gehosofat"—that the only phrase we can thinle of to describe the frog hunting that four of our local citizens encountered last Saturday night. Glovis Justice, Jack Lund Shorty Sims and Leon Conrad, as above picture shows, has a frogging good time near Bakersfield. In fact, they claim that the start of the s a frogging good time near Bakersfield. In fact, they claim it's good anywhere in that valley. They started gigging to music of loud croaking about 9:30 p.m. and worked the sloughs all night using twel-to-fourteen-foot gigs, and since the frogs were in deep water, hip boots and head lights. They easily took the limit of 24 frogs each for a total dressee, weight of about 23 dressed pounds. Some mighty good eating Dicha't hear of anyone getting a dinner invitation. Stingey, or just too good to share? Now's the time for those liking this sport. Come in and we'll try to give you first hand directions.

Every boat had strings of both and anglers fishing the banks were having just as much luck. Crapple are as big as 1½-to-2-pounds. Bill Johnson and son, Bill Jr. were really excited about the Blue Gill fishing at Nacimento Dam, up Paso Robles way. They stated and I quote, "We got between four and five hundred pounds of fish." Wow!—it must have been good. Knowing the Johnsons, I can vouch for their fishing truthfulness so. Blue Gill fishermen, pack your gear and head north to Paso Robles, turn left on Spring Street, go on to the new school house and turn left and follow the sign to Nacimento Dam.
