

TOTAL STORE REDUCTION of modern furniture

DUE TO A CHANGE OF POLICY
I have decided to confine my future endeavor to specializing in elegant Early American and Provincial home furnishings. I am reducing the remaining Modern furniture, at a loss, to make room for incoming new franchised lines. Augmented, in Early American, are floor samples, one of a kind etc. An early selection is recommended.

NORRIS PRESIDENT OF LOCAL OPTIMIST CLUB

An electronics firm executive has been named president of the Torrance Optimist Club in the organization's annual election.

Elected unanimously by the club this week was Rod Norris, who resides at 1323 Fern Ave., who will succeed William Davies, M.D., in the service club's top post.

Other officers include Cliff Graybehl, first vice president; Roland Petrat, second vice president; William Boswell, secretary; E. V. Winkelbauer, treasurer; and Clifford Trezise, sergeant-at-arms.

BOARD MEMBERS for the year include Jack Thomas, Murray Rudnick, Lee Wilson, and Art Woodcock.

The new president heads the reliability department of The Lear Corp., and has been active in many community affairs. He is a past vice president and is still a member of the Beach Cities Symphony, past president and member of the Los Fiestadores dance club, and is a deacon at the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Eleven City Bus Drivers Given Awards

Eleven Torrance Municipal Bus Lines operators have been cited for safe driving records by the National Safety Council.

Receiving awards from the council this week were Lloyd Crowther, 18 years; Sherman Miller, 17 years; Joel Whitman, 13 years; Anthony Jessome, 6 years; Walter Boskovich, 5 years; James Martinez, 4 years; Lester Riehlman, 4 years; George Papac, 3 years; Billy James, 2 years; Harlon Williams, 2 years; and Marvin Anderson, 1 year.

The awards were presented at a safety meeting Wednesday night and are presented on a record of no chargeable accidents during the period of the citation.

Making the presentations to the drivers was Russell Lund, representing the insuring agency.

Loan Firm Reports High Growth Pace

Rapid association growth and a high cash position at the end of the first quarter were pointed to by President Joseph A. Wall, Harbor Savings and Loan Assn., as high points in the quarterly statement, released today.

"The association's cash, or equivalent, position," Wall declared, "is one of the strongest among savings and loan associations in southwestern Los Angeles County."

Association growth also has been most gratifying, Wall said. The Redondo institution has increased in total resources more than 70 per cent in the last 12 months.

Scout Trails

Scout Parents, Inc.

The fourth annual Rolling Hills Scout pancake breakfast, sponsored by Scout Parents, Inc., will be held Saturday morning, May 14, from 7 to 11:30 a.m.

Breakfast will be served earlier this year to accommodate early risers. Tickets can be purchased from any of the Scouts or at the breakfast, which will be held in the courtyard adjacent to the Rolling Hills Market and General Store, at the corner of Rolling Hills Rd. and Palos Verdes Dr. N. The menu will include pancakes, grapefruit, milk, coffee, and bacon.

Proceeds from the event will go to maintain and improve the Rolling Hills Scout House, which is, at present, the only Scout house on the peninsula and was built through the efforts of the Scout parents.

Local groups cooperating in the event include the Kiwanis Club of Lomita and the Northrop Recreation Club.

New Patrols are Patrol I, the Busy Brownies, with Polly Plehal as Patrol Leader, Linda Fredericksen as Police. Other members of the Busy Brownies are Patty Pierce, Shirlaine Bonawitz, Sherry Gallucci, Annette Farrer, and Linda Massey. Patrol II, the Roses, with Barbara Hill as Patrol Leader and Marilyn Harte as Police. Other members of the Roses are Linda Freeman, Debby Gauthier, Alexis Ross and Vickie Dutton. Patrol II, the Bluebirds, with Susan Skay as Patrol Leader and Nancy Searcy Police. Other members of Bluebird Patrol are Linda Scheele, Debby, Hawkins, Kimberly Winslow and Carlynn Wood.

The Brownies of Troop 1811 will be present at the Southwest Park Community Fair at La Romeria Park Saturday, April 30, so look for the Brownies with the Balloons with the Tootsie-Pops.

Patrols were given to Terry Strouse and Ronnie Cooke. Long term badges for a training campout were accepted by Carl Strouse, Billy Wassenberg, Gordie Jones, and Ronnie Cooke. Carl Strouse received his second class award.

The troop formed a circle and tied neckerchiefs on two boys, Michael Slinger and Kevin Simmons, signifying their memberships in the troop. Mr. Patterson also initiated.

At a recent election the following boys were elected: Senior Patrol leader, Billy Wassenberg; Asst. Senior Patrol Leader, Gordie Jones; Scribe, Carl Strouse; Bugler and Wolf Patrol Leader, Jeff Braswell; Quartermaster, Paul Albright; Librarian and Wolf Patrol Asst. Leader, Robert Drury; Cobra Patrol Leader, Ronnie Cooke, and Cobra Patrol Asst. Leader, Larry Strouse.

Adults receiving pins were Messrs. Carl Strouse, one year; Gordon Jones and Bill Stolz, three years; and Paul Braswell, two years. Mr. Braswell also received a plaque. Membership cards for the year were given to all the Boy Scouts of the troop.

Movies of their annual snow trip were shown and refreshments were served.

Brownie Troop 1811

Brownie Troop 1811 and Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 307 enjoyed an Easter Egg Hunt and Weiner Roast April 14, at El Nido Park. Troop 307 showed their skills by looking for the lynch and in trail laying for the Brownies.

The Brownies modeled the hats they had made in an Easter Bonnet Parade. Linda Massey won the prize for the most beautiful hat. Vickie Dutton won the prize for the most humorous.

New officers of Troop 1811 Shirley Gallucci, president; Annette Farrer, vice president; Linda Scheele, secretary; Kimberly Winslow, treasurer; Linda Fredericksen, Marilyn Harte and Nancy Searcy, police; Linda Massey, door keeper.

Boy Scout Troop 211

Boy Scout Troop 211 sponsored by Howard Wood School PTA held a court of honor, April 26, in the school cafeteria. Mr. Bill Dean, Area Representative, presented the annual charter to the group, and also presented awards to Scoutmaster Don Cooke, and Asst. Scoutmasters Gordon Jones and "Pat" Patterson. The national camping award was presented to the troop.

The outstanding event of the evening was the awarding to Scouts Gordie Jones and Billy Wassenberg, who have a three year record of perfect attendance, the Matese Cross with three bars, signifying this accomplishment. Scoutmaster Cooke presented them with gifts of a pen and pencil set. These two boys are the last two remaining on the original charter.

YEAR PINS were given to Ronnie Cooke, Gordie Jones, John Faulkner, Jeff Braswell, Billy Wassenberg, Dave Roberts, Bob Drury, and Larry Strouse. Maltese crosses for one year of perfect attendance
