B'nai B'rith Installation

Mrs. Joseph Stone, district president of B'nai B'rith Women, will be the installing officer when Hollypark B'nai B'rith Women holds its annual installation dinner-dance at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, May 7, at the Pen and Quill Restaurant 3421 Sepulveda Blvd., Manhattan Beach. Mrs. Stone, assisted by Mrs. George Sheff, district second vice president, will install Mrs. Stanley Mittleman of Torrance as president of Hollypark chapter, and Mmes. Arnold Gillmer, Mort Swartz and Stanley Cooper as first, second and third vice presidents, respectively.

Other officers to be installed are Mesdames Ralph Miller, financial secretary; Robert Brody, treasurer; Stanley Caplan, recording secretary; Charles Stearns and Lee Steindler, corresponding secretaries; Morton Weinberg, sentinel; Alfred Cohen, guardian; and Harvey Chernik, Leonard Fruchter, Paul Klein, Fred Mautner and Herbert Schwartz, trustees.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Robert Brody of Inglewood, chairman of the event, and Mrs. Robert Fogel of Los Angeles.

Hard Times Benefit To Assist Boys

A "Depression Days" dinner dance will be sponsored by the Mothers club of Troop 761C tomorrow evening at the Evelyn Carr school cafeteria from 7 to 10:30 p.m.

A "beans and cornbread" dinner followed by dessert will precede an evening of games and dances. Bob Richter, well known square dance caller, will serve as master of ceremonies.

Prizes will be awarded for the best "depression" costume. Serving as menu chairmen are Mrs. Eldon Morgan and Mrs. J. R. Allison; tickets, Mrs. Victor Raelke; decorations, Mrs. Fred Arney; dessert bar, Mmes. Joe Laurich and Charles Bartik.

Proceeds from the affair, to which the public is invited, will go to help finance the baseball program in which 75 boys will participate.

Bake Sale

A bake sale will be held after all masses at St. Philomena's church, 21900 S. Main St. on Sunday, May 8. Cookies, pies, cakes and candy will be sold.

St. Jude's Guild, under the leadership of Mrs. Ella Danucci and Mrs. Ted Arcy, is in charge.

Trio Rebekah

Trio Rebekah Lodge 240 met at the Charles King hall, 1408 253rd St., Harbor City, on April 27. Luroh Best, past noble grand, entertained the 1959 officers. Each was presented with a gift wrapped in the Rebekah colors. Refreshments were served.

Alpha Delta Pi Observes Founders Day

Alpha Delta Pi of Southern California will gather to commemorate the founding of their sorority on Saturday, May 14, at the chapter house on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Harl D. Crockett of Arcadia, president of the Southern Area Council of ADPI, has appointed Mrs. G. J. Hessick, representing the Glendale Alumnae Assn., as Founder's Day chairman. The first event scheduled to begin at 1 o'clock will be the conferring of the Jewel Degree upon graduating senior girls and women whose participation in alumnae affairs has warranted this distinction. The Westside Alumnae will officiate this presentation.

Two awards will be presented to members of the sorority's chapters at the USC, UCLA, and UC at Santa Barbara. The Violet Award goes to the girl selected by her fellow members as the all around outstanding member and a Scholarship Award goes to the girl with highest scholastic standing at each chapter.

The Province President's Award will be presented to the one girl selected from all the California chapters of ADPI as outstanding.

Members from the UCLA chapter will host a tea which will begin at 2 p.m. with table decorations in the traditional blue and white of Alpha Delta Pi.

Menorschapades In Rehearsal

Rehearsals for The Menorschapades, variety show to be presented by Temple Menorah Sisterhood at Torrance High School Auditorium Saturday, May 28, at 8 p.m., have resumed after two postponements of the opening date.

Under the direction of Jan Darien of the Darien Studios in Hermosa Beach, the musical comedy is a takeoff on the score of "My Fair Lady" with original lyrics by Mrs. Mel Schumaker.

MRS. ROGER WALDECK
... Weds April 23
(Portrait by Seeman)

Patricia Payne Is Now Mrs. Roger W. Waldeck

In a nuptial high mass at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic church at 11 o'clock on April 23, Miss Patricia Louise Payne became the bride of Roger Norman Waldeck. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Payne, 2339 W. 239th St., Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Waldeck, 909 Calle Miramar, Hollywood

Riviera are parents of the bridegroom. The Rev. Charles Ara officiated at the marriage and the mass. Mrs. Richard Stoeger played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Louis Regan, soloist.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father. She was radiant in her wedding gown of white nylon organza fashioned with a Chantilly lace empire bodice. The full skirt fell into a chapel train. A headpiece of pearls held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Suzie Bluechel, wearing coral chiffon and a coral velvet headpiece and veil, was the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Misses Joan Clemas, Maria Galenbiowski, Barbara Gonzales, and Joan Marie Woodbury. They were all gowned in coral chiffon and carried nosegays of Marguerite daisies centered by Mayday roses.

Flower girls were Christy Waldeck, Kevin Asman, Cynthia Jarvis and Margaret Ann Clayton. They wore floor length coral organza dresses.

Joe Payne and Kirk Waldeck, young brothers of the couple, presented them with nuptial mass booklets inscribed with their names in gold.

Allen Hodges performed the duties of best man and guests were seated by Bob Boice Larry Marz, Gary Niehiesel and Harry Payne, Jr.

A reception was held in the parish hall following the wedding. The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Palm Springs. The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High school and her husband was graduated from Morningside High in Inglewood.

Family Party At Zupparde Home Sunday

Ann Marie Zupparde made her first Holy Communion at Nativity Catholic Church last Sunday. After the communion mass Ann Marie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Zupparde entertained a large number of friends and relatives at breakfast at their home, 1532 Post Ave. In late afternoon a buffet supper was served.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pagac, Mrs. Jackie Geyer and son, John; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cooper and Carol, Marty and Martha of Torrance.

From San Pedro were paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Zupparde; and Messrs. and Mmes. R. Orlando and Anthony and Vincent; J. Calenda and Donna and Antonette; J. Zupparde and Jovanne; Mrs. M. Ungaro, Henry, Carol Ann and Betty Jane.

Also present were maternal grandmother, Mrs. Rose Iasono, Mr. and Mrs. G. Robinson and Robert and Fran of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Powers of Long Beach; and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Brown and Lisa Ann of Harbor City.

SQUIRRELS REALLY GO FOR phone cables. They like to gnaw on them. Trouble is, this leaves holes that can interfere with your service. So to keep little teeth away, phone people put metal roofs over the most tempting cables or wrap them with steel tape. Squirrels don't like this, but it sure saves on repair costs—one more saving that helps us give you the most for your telephone dollar.
