

The proud man behind this string of fish is Russ Flowars. Don't blame him as you can see he holds a man-size string of bass and catfish, topped with a 14½-pound catfish caught at the Wier, along the Colorado River, near Blythe. H. A. Harvey was there to witness his prize catch and his eyes still have a funny "green" color.

Of course you all know the opening of trout in most places was a huge success. Best in years with 12,870 at Crowley, including Bob McNess and sister, Martha Cambell. Both limited out in no time. Martha's largest trout went 174" and she had a Tahoe at 1914". They claim it was so cold in the mornings that their line and guides it was so cold in the mornings that their line and guides froze up. But by midday it was warm enough that most of the men had their shirts off sunbathing. There were lots of fish, but not as large as usual. Bob and Martha are the most arden Crowley fishermen we know. They go every weekend. The lake is down 20 feet so they urge those wanting the best to go soon. Bob got a 15" Brown Trout in the Owens River, at Chalk Bluffs, on the way home. He just had to wet his line "once more."

The Bob Cosby and Ben Jones families from our city ventured into snow country to fish above the Kern River at Johnsdale in the creeks and streams. Bob, having promised Ben a limit of trout, was proud that the promise was carried out. First time in his life Ben ever caught a limit of trout. They used white salmon eggs in the morning and red ones in the afternoon. They have been going to this same spot for years, on opening day and have "never missed." Bob tells me there was 6 inches of snow, but saw several "novice" "ishermen in Bermuda shorts, shades and flashy hats.

Lloyd Cahoun and family went to Naciemento Dam and had real good luck on Blue Gill and Bass up to 4 pounds. Sunday they went to Lake Isabella and got lots of large Crappie. Everyone fishing both places were having the same good luck.

Good news. The Yellows have finally decided to visit the Coronado Island, out of San Diego. Wednesday the boats got 357, in the 15-to-20-pound class. Course, Walt Gilliard got 357, in the 15-to-20-pound class. Course, Wait Gilliard grabbed his rod and reel and away he went.

George from Red's Bait & Tackle called, with more good news and said he and Frank Distafano have invented a new type jig called the "Skitz." It has two heads shaped like the Candy Bar, cut in the middle and welded together with a '4" off-set. The all yellow ones, trimmed in green or blue are the best, selling for $2.50. They went last week when fishing was lousy and got four out of the five fish caught. Bill Poole off the Polaris, claims it's the "Hottest jig in 25 years." We will have some Thursday. Come in and jig in 25 years." We will have some Thursday. Come in and try one out if you're heading down San Diego way.

Hubert Sparks 9-1 Win

Freshman Cary Hubert re-turned to North High's line-up after a month's absence Tuesday and sparked the championship-minded Saxons to a 9 to 1 Bay League victory over Hawthorne on the loser's diamond.

The decisive win, North's eighth against three loss plus Mira Costa's 3-0 loss second division Morningside High boosted North into a two-team tie for first place with three games remaining to be played plaved.

Coach Bob Shoup's nine goes after Redondo's scalo today in the beach city at 3 p.m., then wraps up the regular season next week by hosting Leuzinger on Tuesday and traveling to Santa Monica on Thursday.

IF NORTH HANGS onto its first place hold, and somebody knocks off Mira Costa, North will claim this city's first versity major-sport Bay League championship in 14 years.

As things stand now, the Saxons are a virtual cinch to enter the California Interscholation.

astic Federation's (CIF) play-offs on May 17, when the two top teams from each league will vie for the southern section title.

North used three murror Tuesday in limiting Hawthorne to just three hits and one untry, winner Dennis Hogue (7-2), Billy Kehoe, and History.

Hogue had a no-hitter for three innings but was hooked after the 4th because of unsteady control.

KEHOE THREW the middle two, and Hubert, who'll probably start today's game, pitch ed the 7th frame and stru out the side.
