

Flowers, Feathers, Frills — Milady Dons Her Hat

SWEEPSTAKES WINNER . . . This fabulous creation, an extravaganza of hundreds of yellow blossoms, won the sweepstakes prize for Mrs. R. C. Focha at the annual Woman's club "Headdress Fantasy" staged Wednesday at the clubhouse. Judges were Mmes. T. J. de Chambeau, Laurance Vernand and Richard Maben.

TAKE FIRST PLACES . . . In the four categories of competition in the Woman's club gala hat parade Wednesday at the clubhouse winners of first place awards were from left, Mrs. R. C. Roberson, original; Mrs. Elsie Powell, maddest; Mrs. M. A. Bauman, most beautiful; and Mrs. Sid Gans, theme.

WIN JUDGES' NOD . . . Running close seconds in the four categories and adding colorful originality to the spring bonnet parade were from left, Mmes. S. H. Yanase, original; L. G. Pulliam, theme; A. H. Kreman, maddest; and J. A. Marshall, most beautiful.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by
Ann
Landers

"Game the Same, So is the Name"

Dear Ann: Our daughter Brenda is 16. She's a good-looking girl but short on personality. She couldn't get a boy interested in her until recently. Now she's so popular we are deeply concerned.

It all started about three months ago when Brenda became friendly with a girl I never cared for. The two of them started to attend night hockey games. Although they went stag they always found someone to bring them home. They call it "meeting friends." In our day we called it "getting picked up."

The phone has been ringing steadily with calls from boys we've never met and know nothing about. Brenda has had as many as three different dates on a Saturday night.

She says we should leave her alone because she's popular now and happier than she's ever been in her life. Her schoolwork is going to the dogs. What shall we do? — AFRAD

Dear AFRAD: If you continue to let this girl run wild ("happy" my eye!) you're abdicating your responsibility as parents.

She can call it "meeting new friends" if she likes, but she's getting picked up. The game is the same—and so is the name.

Lay down the law and set some limits. Tell Brenda she can't go out with anyone who has not first been introduced at home. Limit her dating to weekends, only. And ONE date an evening is enough. Establish a curfew and see that she sticks to it.

In brief, get back in the driver's seat where you belong before this girl cracks up.

Dear Ann Landers: I have an acquaintance (I refuse to call her a friend) who always manages to ask questions about things which are none of her business. For example, she'll come into my home and ask "Is your carpeting wool or cotton?" Or, "Did you have a wholesale connection for the dinette set or did you buy it retail?"

When she asked me if I had a complete or partial plate, I thought this was the limit and told her it was no business of hers. She replied she was only interested because she considered herself a very close friend.

How, in your opinion, should such a person be handled? — BLAZING

Dear Blazing: Just the way you handled it — bluntly and to the point. Insensitive clouds who think nothing of asking

(Continued on Page 12)

MISS PHYLLIS SANDOVAL
... Troth Revealed

(Photo Reflex)

Tour Famous Cave

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lane of 908 Portola Ave. toured the Carlsbad Caverns National Park in southeastern New Mexico during a visit in that area recently.

At Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Anderson, 1511 Pennsylvania, Lomita, spent a recent weekend enjoying the Danish cuisine and hot springs facilities at Glen Ivy Hot Springs.

HEALTH CENTER'S WORK . . . The Torrance Health Center, which is one of the philanthropies supported by the Peninsula Volunteers of the Needlework Guild of America was described for members by Mrs. Florence Cowden, senior public health nurse at a meeting at the Torrance YWCA last Monday. Pictured are from left, Mrs. Henry Graef, president, Mrs. Cowden, standing, and Mmes. Murray Beebe, Frederick Gersel, Paul Hoke and Carl Spice.

Sandoval-Warnemuende Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McBurney, 2027 W. 145th St., Gardena are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Sandoval, to M. James Warnemuende, son of Mr. Mrs. Mel Warnemuende, 4118 W. 177th St., Torrance.

The young couple were graduated from North High school where each was active in student government. They reigned together as King and Queen of the North High Senior Prom in 1958.

Miss Sandoval is employed by a real estate firm and attends El Camino college as a secretarial major.

Her fiancé is employed by a local market and is a secondary education major at El Camino.

They are both affiliated with Alpha Gamma Sigma, the honorary scholarship society on campus.

A late August wedding is being planned.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Howard Walker entertained her bridge club Wednesday evening at her home, 1216 Felbar Ave.

The hostess served a dessert preceding the bridge games in which high score was held by Mrs. William Starr and second by Mrs. Chalmers Strayer.

Mrs. Walker's guests were Mmes. Eugene Lenk, George Booth, Frank Barnes, W. A. Winters, Jack Dean, Starr and Strayer.

Mrs. Barnes will be the club's next hostess.

Cocktail Party

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Foley entertained 18 friends at cocktails last Sunday evening at their South Shores home prior to going to the Petroleum club in Long Beach for a buffet supper. The affair was the annual cocktail-dansant staged by the Holy Name Adoption Agency.

TORRANCE HERALD

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

May 8, 1960

11

MRS. RAY WYATT
... To Direct Club

Torrance Lioness Club Elects Officer Panel

Mrs. Ray Wyatt, 620 Madrid Ave., will serve as president of the Torrance Lioness club during the club year 1960-61. Mrs. Wyatt, who has lived in Torrance for the past four years, is wife of the assistant postmaster of Torrance.

She is the mother of two children, Linda 12, and David 8. Her hobbies include playing the Hammond organ, cooking and sewing.

Serving with her in directing Lioness activities will be Mrs. Dale Harter, first vice president; Mrs. Mott Farrell, second vice president; Mrs. Paul Burnam, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Clark, treasurer; Mrs. Alfred Radisch, hair puller; and Mrs. Cecil Powell, bulletin editor.

These new officers will be installed at a dinner meeting on June 4 at the Club Alondra.

Lt. Mitchell To Washington D.C.

Lt. and Mrs. Donald Mitchell and two children of Long Beach will leave Monday for Washington, D.C., where Lt. Mitchell will take a 14-month course at the George Washington University graduate school prior to accepting a teaching position at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis.

Lt. Mitchell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, 1317 Acacia Ave.

Kail-Sciarrotta Nuptials Recited at St. Andrew's

On Sunday afternoon, May 1, at 2 o'clock, Miss Bonnie Kail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Kail, 1544 W. 216th St. exchanged her marriage promises with Jerry Sciarrotta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sciarrotta, 21017 Madrona Ave. The wedding took place at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian church in Redondo.

As the 450 wedding guests assembled, Mrs. Melville Tully at the organ played a background of nuptial music and accompanied Mr. Tully who sang "I Love Thee," "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore an Alfred Angelo original of pure silk organza and Chantilly lace fashioned with a scoop neckline and long sleeves. The full sweep chapel train was bordered with clipped Chantilly. A crown of pearls and sequins held the English silk illusion veil. The bride, a past Honored Queen of the Torrance Bethel of Job's Daughters, carried her white Bible topped by white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. John Kittle served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore pale blue chiffon and carried white and blue carnations. Bridesmaids were Misses Jane Rowe, Sharman McNally, Patty Sciarrotta and Marie Sciarrotta. They were gowned in pale pink chiffon and carried bouquets of deeper pink.

Little Tonni Sciarrotta, in a nylon frock and lace bonnet, was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Johnny Kittle. Candles were lighted by Misses Cecil and Kaye Kail.

Don Sciarrotta stood as his brother's best man and ushers were Ken Kail, Frank Sciarrotta, Ross Sciarrotta and Mick Jelsma.

The Rev. Paul Cox officiated at the double ring marriage ceremony.

A reception was held in the gardens at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Raymond Eledta registered the guests.

The new Mrs. Sciarrotta was graduated from Narbonne High in June 1959. Her husband attended Torrance High school. After a honeymoon, the couple will establish a Torrance home.

MRS. JERRY SCIARROTTA
... On Wedding Day

(Portrait by Seaman)