Sioux Falls Guest

Mrs. Inez Kelley of Sioux Falls has arrived for a month's visit with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Foster J. Kelley of Hickory Ave. Mrs. Kelley came especially to attend the graduation of her granddaughter, Carol Jo Kelley from Marymount in June.

. . . Ann Landers

you aren't allowed to rattle around by yourself at night and do as you please.
A girl never need be ashamed because her parents have the good judgment and courage to set limits and see that she toes the mark. This sort of "talk" can only add to your standing. Get smart.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a girl 15 and play the clarinet very well. The trouble is, a girl who is better-looking than I am makes goo-goo eyes at the band director and she gets all the solo passages.

I only want what's coming to me. Do you think I should report the band leader to the school principal? — PUSHED ASIDE

Dear Pushed: If you go to the principal with a story like this you'll get what's coming all right—and it won't be good.

I can't imagine any place where looks count less and ability counts more than in a school band. Keep practicing, and outshine "Goo-Goo Eyes" to the point where it is obvious to all that you are the superior musician.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love or Sex?", enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Mr. Crowe and Mr. Le Feuvre served in the U.S. Navy aboard the USS Whetstone LSD 27 during 1951-53. During his visit, the trio were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millard H. Edwards of West Covina. Mr. Edwards was also in the Navy.

Magic Voice Interpreted By Members

Introducing the theme, "Sound Off," the Lamplighters Toastmistress Club held their regular meeting Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in the Western Club Cafe.

The Pledge to the Flag was led by Shirley Swanson and the inspiration given by Lucile Reid.

With the topic, "The Influence of a Magic Voice," Table Topic Chairman Patricia Tyrell called upon Wilma Hazelrigg, Fanchon Garner, Rona Jefferson, Jean Schrader and Delores Tomlinson for dramatic interpretations of anger, friendship, joy and anguish. Winner of Table Topic Award was Wilma Hazelrigg for her excellent interpretation of anger.

Toastmistress Jeanine Patterson presented her program, "Emphasis on Voice Modulation." Speakers were Helen Longpre, Betty Adams and Wilma Hazelrigg. The Best Speaker trophy was awarded to Helen Longpre.

Club representative Pearl Risher gave a complete evaluation of the first half of the meeting, with the entire membership participating in a round table evaluation of the speakers.

Closing thought was given by President Jeanette Kurtz. Guests present were Elvira Carr and Ruth Gabelman.

CCD Assists With Annual Parish Affair

An open meeting of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine of St. Anthony's parish was held Tuesday evening at the parish hall with Mrs. William J. Kennelly, president, in charge.

Plans were discussed for the group's participation in the annual fiesta at St. Anthony's. It was decided to sponsor three booths.

Volunteer workers are needed and those interested may call Mrs. Edna Benelken, who is in charge of the religious articles booth; Mrs. John Dugan, fish pond booth; and Mrs. Gloria Fredericks, variety booth.

An advance sale of tickets at discount is now being held and tickets may be secured at the school of Religion classes or by contacting Mrs. Adam Tseko.

Mrs. Herbert Lemberger, who will be principal of the summer school, June 20 to July 1, gave a report on the curriculum which includes religion, handicraft and music. Classes will be for grades one through Junior High.

Mrs. Winnie Gilliland, 1157 W. 163rd St., will do the baby sitting for the teachers' children.

A pot luck luncheon for the Sisters and teachers was held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Quattrini on May 24.

Following the Confraternity prayer, refreshments were served.

In San Diego

Mrs. Alma Smith will return tomorrow from San Diego where she has spent the past three days visiting with relatives and friends.
