Lamplighters Hear Panel

"How to Win Friends and Influence People" was the topic of a panel discussion at the meeting of the Lamplighters Toastmistress Club Wednesday evening at the Western Club Cafe. Fanchon Garner was the moderator.

Panelists Ruth Valleveni, Viola Murphy, Betty Adams, and Jeanine Patterson discussed and answered questions on human relations with Betty Adams winning the best speaker trophy.

Introducing her topic "Stories Behind the News," Delores Tomlinson, table topic mistress called upon Virginia Miller for a report on "Hollywood Park Racing"; Helen Longpre, "The Smog Situation"; Pearl Risher, "Sports Report"; Jeanine Patterson "Fashion Report"; Rona Jefferson, "The Tidal Wave"; and Lucile Reid, "Dear Abby". Rona Jefferson won the table topics award.

Ruth Valleveni, nominating committee chairman, read the slate of officers to be elected at the June 8 meeting.

Alice Campbell, charter president of Lamplighters evaluated the entire meeting. Guests were Norma Brown and Beverly Brazil. Closing thought was given by Jeanette Kurtz, president.

Grandmother Fetes Joy

Little Miss Joy Ewing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ewing of Los Angeles was complimented at a party at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Norman O. Kasson, 209 W. 225th St. Torrance last Saturday afternoon celebrating her fourth birthday.

Joy reigned as a "princess" and each guest was presented with a crown. A prize was given to the child finding most jewels which had been lost by the princess.

A birthday cake baked by Mrs. Reeve of La Puente was served with ice cream and punch.

Among the 24 guests were the following Torrance children, Sandra Spang, Jenny and Tommy Houston, Diane Ruben and Georgia Wright.
