

Mr., Mrs. G. A. Groves On Santa Barbara Honeymoon

Honeymooning in Santa Barbara are Mr. and Mrs. Gary Allen Groves, who were married in an eight o'clock ceremony on Friday evening at the Torrance Foursquare Church. Mrs. Groves is the former Bonnie Kay Holloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Holloway, 1413 W. 220th St. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Groves, Jr., 25841 Narbonne Ave., Lomita are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of white silk organza and lace. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara and she carried a white Bible and a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Vera May Holloway was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of mint green chiffon over taffeta and a bouquet of white iris.

Bridesmaids were Misses Roberta Fay Holloway and Jackie Miller. Their gowns were also of green chiffon and their bouquets were of white iris tied with green streamers.

Suzanne Penn, in a mint green frock, was the flower girl. The bridegroom asked his brother, Mark Groves, to stand as best man and ushers were Arthur Morton and Pete Miller.

The Rev. James Lowen officiated at the marriage. Mrs. A. White, organist, accompanied Frank League, soloist.

A reception for the 300 guests was held at the church and Donna Gibson was in charge of the guest book.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High and is employed at Harvey Aluminum Co.

Her husband, a graduate of Torrance High and Harbor College, is employed by the Edison Co. in Redondo.

The couple's new address is 1410 Amapola Ave., Torrance.

Mrs. Jamieson At Wellesley

Mrs. N. F. Jamieson, 1804 Gramercy Ave., Torrance Librarian, is among the 1,000 alumnae returning to Wellesley College for the annual Wellesley Week End June 9-12 on campus in Wellesley, Mass. Members of 15 classes from 1895 to 1955 will hold reunions.

One highlight of reunion will be the breaking of ground for McAfee Hall, a dormitory to be named in honor of Mildred McAfee Horton, president of Wellesley from 1936-1949. Mrs. Horton, who was director of the WAVES during World War II, will take part in the groundbreaking ceremony for the dormitory which will house 145 students.

Some alumnae returning for class reunions arrived early in order to attend a new program, Wellesley Alumnae College, on June 8 and 9. "Russia Today: Avenues to Understanding" is the theme of the series of six lectures by Wellesley faculty members who are specialists in Russian history, political science, economics, literature, and music.

Public Dinner

Torrance National Little League will stage a dime-a-dip dinner at the Torrance Park on Saturday June 11 at 6 p.m. Proceeds will be used to help cover expenses necessary to keep 200 boys playing baseball. The public is invited to attend.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS . . . Richard Jurmain, left, is congratulated by Mrs. Jo Walti, chairman of the Las Vecinas scholarship committee as Robert Hole looks on. Richard won a scholarship to USC where he will study medicine. Robert won the club $100 scholarship for his trip to Germany this summer, sponsored by the American Field Service.

Vecinas Presents Awards

Continuing its practice of the past five years, Las Vecinas again this year awarded scholarships in the amount of $700. The club made four renewable scholarships of $200, one to each high school in the Torrance school system.

Richard Jurmain, South High student, received a scholarship to USC where he will study medicine. Richard is an "A" student. He has participated in sports and is vice president of the California Scholarship Federation. His extracurricular activities include scouting and serving as president of a Temple Menorah Youth group. He is also a member of the Southern California Federation of Temple Youth.

Winning the club's American Field Service scholarship was another South High student, Robert Hole. Robert has been selected by the Torrance chapter of American Field Service to spend the summer in Germany. He has served as chairman of the Constitution Committee for the South High service clubs and is student body president.
