Saxon Catcher to Play In Hearst All-Star Game

Dave Marsden, a senior graduate from North High School and sparkplug of the Saxon's co-championship Bay League baseball team was named to the second team all- 32 CIF squad this week by the Helms Hall Board of Athletics. The red-headed catcher was placed only behind the California Interscholastic Federation's "Player of the Year," Marshal Adair, a .465 hitter from El Rancho High, on the all-CIF lists.

Salton Sea Fish

Reef Enlarged

Continuing its buildup of ar-tificial fishing reefs in Salton Sea, the Department of Fish and Game has just placed 130 more old auto bodies on the bottom of the Sea off the Bom-bay Beach area bay Beach area.

The junked cars were laid in a 1200-foot line in 35 feet of water, approximately one mile off the east shore.

The reefs are intended to at-tract Salton Sea's game fishes into known areas where they will be more readily available to anglers. Approximately 200 additional car bo dies are scheduled to be added to the A new church bowling league has been announced by Paul MacAllister, who is heading up the program for the scheduled to be added to the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Salton Sea fishing reefs next fall.

ALL-CIF . . . North High's Dave Mardsen became first baseball player in Saxon history to land an all-CIF berth this week when he was named to the second team by the Helms Hall Board of Athletics. The red-headed senior graduate swatted .311 for 25 games and sparked the underdog Saxons to a tie for the Bay League title. In background photo, Marsden is shown putting tag on Mira Costa's Joey Moeller in early league game. Moeller was a first string all-CIF pitching selection. Umpire is George Stanleh. (Herald photo).
