

JERRY REYNOLDS
... earns scholarship

Herald Staffer Completes First Year in College

After completing his freshman year as a major in architecture at the University of California at Berkeley, Jerry Reynolds, North High School graduate, returned to Torrance Wednesday.

He attended the University on an Elbridge A. Stuart Scholarship from the Carnation Co. Foundation. In addition he will receive the Nellie Lowry Scholarship, given by the University of California on a basis of academic performance, for the 1960-61 scholarship year.

Jerry Reynolds was high school correspondent for the HERALD for three years beginning in 1957 and joined the staff fulltime during summer vacation last year. His byline stories have appeared in various departments of this newspaper, especially in the sports section, which he claims as his first love in the news field.

Young Reynolds' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Reynolds, 22302 Redbeam Ave., left with Jerry, his sister and brother Douglas, Saturday for a vacation in North Carolina and Yellowstone Park.

Jerry Reynolds will return to the HERALD staff in July and will do reportorial and photographic coverage until he returns to his studies in September.

Church Men To Show Film On Narcotics

The King's Men of the Western Avenue Baptist Church invites the public to participate in its monthly program June 27th, 7:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

A film depicting drug addiction and the inevitable destruction of the mind and body by its use, will be shown. This film cost $30,000 to produce and is 70 minutes long. It is used extensively by churches, PTA, and other organizations who oppose the drug problem in California.

"We believe it to be extremely important to teenagers and young adults," said Earl Hull, president. An officer from the Sheriff's department will be present to answer questions from the film.

"We urge the families in the area to make it a family sight and all come together to view the film," he said.

YOUTH OF CHURCH TO LEAD RITE

This is Youth Week at Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church in Lomita.

Nearly 100 young people have assumed places of responsibility for the week. They will be teaching in the Sunday school on this coming Sunday. The Sunday evening service will be conducted by them.

The Youth Pastor is Keith Foble, a student in Long Beach State College. Choir Director is Roger Rosendahl, Sunday school Superintendent is Glen Lycock and Training Union Director is Bill McKee.

"The enthusiasm of our young people serves to inspire us. There is little fear for the future when it is in the hands of young people like these," the Church Pastor, Robert A. Vells, stated.

Rev. Olie T. Brown, Dean of California Baptist College will gain speak at the Sunday morning services at 8:30 and 0:50 a.m. Mr. Brown will also be guest speaker on July 3rd and 10th. The pastor is doing his advanced study during his time.
