a duty station from basic training at Lackland will receive on-the-job training under highly-qualified technical specialists. Airmen are selected for these assignments on the basis of their interests, aptitudes, and the needs of the Air Force.

Personnel assigned directly to a duty station are immediately integrated into operational units of the USAF Aerospace Force.

Army Specialists Four James B. Hussey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Hussey, 1887 Lincoln Ave., participated with other personnel from the 4th Armored Division in combat efficiency training tests in Grafenwohr, Germany, until Wednesday.

Hussey, a supply clerk in Company A of the division's 54th Infantry, entered the Army in November 1958, completed basic training at Fort Hood, Tex., and arrived overseas last May.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Torrance High School and attended El Camino College.

Army Sgt. Wayne E. Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Jordan, 20947 S. Denker Ave., participated with other personnel from the 4th Armored Division in combat efficiency training tests in Grafenwohr, Germany. The tests ended Wednesday.

This training was designed to determine the combat readiness of personnel and units of the division which is a major element in the NATO shield of defense in Europe.

Jordan, a mortar squad leader in Company A of the division's 41st Infantry in New Ulm, entered the Army in March 1951 and arrived overseas on this tour of duty in April 1959.

The sergeant is a 1958 graduate of Fremont High School in Los Angeles.

Before entering the Army, he was employed by North American Aviation, Inc., in Los Angeles.

His wife, Donna, is with him in Germany.

Airman Matthew D. McIntyre, son of Mr. Matthew McIntyre, of 4926 Calle De Arboles, and Airman Allen G. Brisack Jr., son of Mr. Allen G. Brisack Sr. of 2014 Torrance Blvd. have completed their initial course of Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

Both airmen have been selected to attend further specialized training. McIntyre has been assigned to the Radio and Radar Maintenance Course at Keesler AFB, Mississippi and Brisack has been selected for Supply Specialist Course at Amarillo AFB, Texas.

Both airmen were selected for their respective courses on the basis of their interests and aptitudes.

According to Technical Sgt. Duane K. Hettler, Local Air Force Recruiter, the aptitudes for these men were determined prior to enlistment. They were graded in the fields of Administration, Mechanics, General and in the Electronic Area. McIntyre chose to enlist for the Electronic training whereas Brisack chose the Administrative area.

All interested young men between the ages of 17 and 27
