Gala July 4th Party Given by Volunteers

The Fourth of July was the incentive for a festive party in the children's ward at the Harbor General Hospital last Thursday afternoon staged by the Volunteers for Children. The entire ward was decorated in the red, white and blue.

The napkins, plates and favors were made and donated to the Volunteers for Children by Cub Pack 960C Den 4, whose leader is Mrs. R. R. Wightman, also a member of the South Bay Visiting Nurses. Inside each of the favors, which were bright red candles, were hats, balloons and a small gift to delight each child.

Feature attraction for the afternoon was Tony Cappasola and his "friendly monkey", Cappasola is a TV and motion picture actor and organ grinder. He and Mrs. Cappasola were in colorful costumes for the party. The Cappasolas and their monkey donate their time to entertaining hospitalized children.
