

Horkey-Moore Gets Navy Contract

Horkey-Moore Associates, a division of Houston Fearless Corp., has received a research and development contract from the U.S. Navy Purchasing Office, Los Angeles, for production of 400 rocket nozzles. Edward J. Horkey, president, announced today. The rocket nozzle, for a classified missile, will be fabricated by Horkey-Moore's Plastics Division, under the direction of Vincent G. Gurley. The units, made of graphite and phenolic-impregnated asbestos, will be delivered to the Naval Ordnance Test Station at China Lake, Calif., for evaluation and testing.

Dollar value of the contract and identification of the missile for which the Horkey-Moore rocket nozzle are intended were not disclosed.
