

Jewish Vets Plan Annual Picnic Event

Plans are going on apace for making the Regional Picnic of the Jewish War Veterans, scheduled for next Sunday, July 24th, at Ladera Park, one of the most attractive events of the summer, according to general chairman Bernard Golub.

and happy all day long, says Golub. There will also be many valuable items among the free giveaways with a free automobile as the climax of the day.

Other members of the General Picnic Committee include: Gene Gach, Irwin J. Kaplin, William Klugman, Sol Marshall, Harold Raskin, Harry Rubin and Joseph Solomonow.

Boys State Report Due At Meeting

Al Mazzie, Vice Commander of the Department of California, will be guest of honor at the regular meeting of the Torrance American Legion to be held next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The picnic will bring together all members of the Jewish War Veterans and their friends in the final activity of the summer preceding the National Convention. Regional Commander, Bernard Rodin, also points out that participation in the picnic will support the services of the Jewish War Veterans.

Dr. Stone Interns At Rio Hondo

Dr. Harvey Stone of Torrance is one of six new interns recently appointed to the class at the Rio Hondo Memorial Hospital, Dr. A. Allan Witlin, chief of staff, announced last week.

Library Group Meets

The regular meeting of the Torrance Library Commission is scheduled for Tuesday, July 19, in the conference room (209) of the city hall.

Funds have been appropriated for a branch library to be located in the West Torrance area and the primary concern of the evening will be a discussion of possible locations.

The public is invited to attend the meeting, which will get underway at 7:30 p.m.

Space Age Display at Library

Photographs, artists conceptions, and models comprise the bulk of a display currently at the downtown Library on the Space Age. The display, compiled by Jeanetta Johnson, is an exhibition by the Air Force Association Air Harbor Auxiliary.

Among the many materials on display is a model of the first missile firing submarine, the USS George Washington. Other models are of missiles, space stations, and defense warning systems. The material is augmented by official releases from the government, universities, and industries engaged in the defense research program.

The exhibition will be at the library until July 30. It is an educational display, loaned to libraries, schools, and other groups providing educational displays.

Home Owners Host Incorporation Meet

The Home Owners Division of the Dominguez Chamber of Commerce are hosting an open meeting for all citizens within the boundaries of the proposed Dominguez-Carson Incorporation Area at the Dominguez Community Center in Dominguez on Friday, July 22, at 7:30 p.m. On Monday, July 25, the Carson Chamber of Commerce will host a similar meeting for the citizens within the proposed incorporation boundaries at Stephen M. White Jr. High School Auditorium.

Both of these meetings will be of great importance to the citizens of the area as the Dominguez-Carson Fact-Finding Committee will present with facts and figures based on the "County Report" from the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. A 22 minute film "The Lakewood Story" will also be viewed and discussed at both meetings.

Beth Torah Sisterhood Dinner Held

Southwest Temple Beth Torah Sisterhood held their annual donor dinner, Wednesday evening, July 6 at the Raffles restaurant in Los Angeles. The affair was attended by 45 women who made their individual affairs during the past year in order to raise their donor quotas for the Sisterhood.

Mrs. Jules Ross, outgoing sisterhood president welcomed the guests and Mrs. Mickey Markow, program chairman provided a musical program as a conclusion to the evening. Each woman was presented with a lovely pair of earrings as a memento of the evening.

Another affair was given Saturday evening, July 9 by Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kahn who were hosts at a luau given at their home, 16916 Berendo Gardens for over 200 Temple Beth Torah members and friends who all entered into the spirit of the occasion and came dressed in maus maus, grass skirts, colorful Hawaiian shirts and other forms of informal dress.

A delicious buffet dinner was served on the patio which was beautifully decorated in the Hawaiian theme and music throughout the evening was provided by the Trudells School of Music of Gardena. There also was interpretive modern dancing by a teenager which was enjoyed by all. Proceeds of this affair was donated to the Southwest Temple Beth Torah Sisterhood.
