Olden Times Favored Over Pappa's All

When Hollywood Park presents the first of America's $100,000-plus races for two-year-olds in the Hollywood Juvenile Championship on Saturday, the eyes of turf followers throughout the nation will be upon the six-furlong event seeking out new champions.

From the Hollywood Juvenile last year came Warfare, Tompion, who was to become the favorite this year for both the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes, and such other outstanding stakes performers as Noble Noor, New Policy, Echoic and T. V. Lark.

NOBLE NOOR was the surprise $60-for-$2 winner of the Hollywood Juvenile last year, earning a net $117,700 for his owners, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith, and an additional $11,885 for them in the breeders' awards. Tompion and Warfare, who were destined to go on to major stakes conquests in the east, were fast-closing second and third.

Two years ago the Starlet Stakes, which preceded the Hollywood Juvenile as Hollywood Park's two-year-old championship race, produced the winner Tomy Lee, who went on the following year to defeat Sword Dancer for the Kentucky Derby crown.

Consequently, when Hollywood's top-ranking two-year-olds go to the post in its season's grand finale for this division, turf experts have reason to expect a new champion or champions to be revealed.

EXPECTED TO BE the "big horses" of the 1960 Hollywood Juvenile are Rex Ellsworth's Olden Times, Mr. and Mrs. Grover D. King's Pappa's All, Covert Ranch's Saber Charge and Alberta Ranch's Big Smoky, but at least four other excellent prospects will be in the hunt for the huge pot.

Off the four straight victories of his short career, all of them scored at Hollywood Park, and his recent half-length defeat of Pappa's All, Olden Times, the French-bred son of Relic, may rank a slight favorite.

Pappa's All, however, with five straight wins including two stakes at Bay Meadows, before losing to Olden Times, will have many enthusiastic backers who feel that he can reverse the decision on the Ellsworth colt the next time out.

SABER CHARGE, who drew the highest price at the Del Mar yearling sales last summer of $29,500, is a rapidly improving son of Royal Charger and Trainer Reggie Cornell has been racing him sparingly to bring him up to the Hollywood Juvenile in top form. Cornell last year sent another son of Royal Charger — Royal Orbit — back to Pimlico to win the Preakness and he believes that Saber Charge has even greater potentialities.

Big Smoky, a son of Indian Hemp, the young sire who has been turning out an imposing string of speed burners, was second a head to Songman in his last start and also seems to be improving at an amazing rate.

191 Average Kegler Rolls 297 Game in Blue Grass Classic

With less than 35 days of qualifying remaining in the richest guaranteed singles classic in the history of bowling, the 3rd Annual Blue Grass Singles Classic, more than $68,800 remains to be distributed to entrants of all averages.

When the official results of the 7th week of qualifying, which ended early Monday morning, were made official, more than $35,000 had found its way into the pockets of prize-winning qualifiers.

A 191-AVERAGE kegler from Bakersfield came within three pins of the tourney's second perfect game when he mauled the lanes of Westchester Bowling Academy with a 297. As the 12th ball of the third frame sailed wide past the headpin, Leon Nelson saw his dreams for a perfect performance vanish.

However, he won the weekly $100 prize for high individual series in men's Class 1, and the 297 now stands as the highest game scored to date in his class. Should the game be unsurpassed during the remaining 5 weeks of qualifying another $250 will be awarded to Nelson.
