FVA Will Pay Expenses For Vet Burial

BLUE CHIP

Reimbursement of up to $250 for the burial expenses of veterans is available to the firm or person who bore the expen-ses, Veterans Service Officer, Mrs. Sara R. Bridges, Torrance Veterans Center, pointed out

Veterans Center, pointed out today.

The veterans must have been 1) honorably discharged with wartime service; 2) discharged or retired from service for a vated in line of duty; or 3) receiving disability compensation at the time of death, or would have except for the receipt of retirement pay.

REIMBURSEMENT is payable by the Federal Veterans Administration, although State law provides for the county to pay up to $250 burial allow-ance if the Federal reimbursement is not available and if the veteran died without sufficient means.

Claims for reimbursement Claims for reimbursement or for direct payments of bursial and funeral expenses and transporation of the body, must be made within two years after the permanent burial or cremation of the body. Claims may be filed by 1) the undertaker (if there is an unpaid balance due the undertaker); 2) the individual whose personal funds were used to pay the expenses of burial, funeral and transporation; or 3) the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased veteran, tor or administrator of the estate of the deceased veteran, or of the estate of the person who paid the expenses of the veteran's burial or provided such services.

THE FAMILY of a veteran who dies during treatment in at VA hospital may arrange for burial and later claim refor burial and later claim re-imbursement not to exceed $250, or the family may ar-range to accept contract burial by the funeral home holding contract with the hospital. The cost of transporting the body from the hospital to the burial place may be paid by the VA upon receipt of a claim.

The VA also furnishes a flag to drape the casket of a veteran, the Service Officer noted.

UJW Fund Campaign Successful

Figures just received from Los Angeles Headquarters of the United Jewish Welfare Agency show that South Bay has already exceeded its goal, with some pledges yet to be re-

The local drive was headed by Dr. William V. Nussbaum and Paul Mandel, both of Palos and Paul Mandel, both of Palos Verdes Estates, who were very capably assisted by Rabbi Henri Front of Temple Menorah and many others including S am Levy, Mrs. Edward Schwartz, Seymour Uberman, George Lewison, Nick Drale, Torrance councilman, and Dr. Matthew E. Ellenhorn, who crowded in the completion of his assignment in spite of his trip to Europe and Israel, and Gerald L. Alter of Alter Realty and Insurance who furnished and Insurance who furnished facilities for the Telephone committee.

The response indicates the awareness of local citizens of all denominations of the importance of the work done by this organization which sup-ports 169 agencies for relief, welfare and veterans' needs in this country and abroad.

Immediately after the recent earthquake in Morocco, UJW was first to deliver medical supplies and food.
