Smith, Sr., 702 E. 222nd St., completed the general office procedures course April 5 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C. Before entering the service in January, she attended the University of California.

Local Officer Gets AF Medal On Retirement

Chief Warrant Officer George W. Kridner Jr., who resides at 18332 Yukon Ave., received the Air Force Commendation Medal for "exceptionally meritorious service for the period from June 1957 through March 1961," on his retirement last week, it was announced yesterday.

CWO Kridner retired on April 28 after more than 20 years of military service. Major General Thomas P. Gerr-

Army Private Bruce G. Stinger is presently undergoing basic Infantry training at Fort Ord.

The eight week program consists of such vital military subjects as rifle marksmanship, Infantry tactics, first aid, military justice and the conservation and maximum utilization of military supplies. Upon completion of his basic training, the soldier will go on to either advanced Infantry or one of the many Army specialist schools.

A 1957 graduate of North high school and an attendant of El Camino College, Private Stinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Stinger, 4343 W. 177th St.

CWO GEORGE KRIDNER JR. Receives Air Force Citation

ity, commander of the Ballistic Systems Division of the Air Force, presented Kridner with a certificate of retirement and the Air Force Commendation Medal in the presence of BSD staff officer, Mrs. Kridner, and the couple's six children.

Kridner was commended for his development of maintenance-engineering data and records systems which "contributed greatly to the logistic supportability of the ICBM operational force."

Col. Ingraham is assigned as commander of the 263d Engineer Battalion of the 63d Infantry Division, an Army Reserve unit in Van Nuys.

The colonel, whose parents live in Palm Springs is a 1934 graduate of South Gate High School and attended the University of California at Los Angeles.
