Small Craft Harbor Bonds Go on Block      Tryouts for Little League Slated Saturday

California Small Craft Harbor Bonds totaling $3,000,000 will be offered for sale at public bid by Bert A. Betts, State Treasurer June 14, 1961. The bonds to be sold at par value will be series D dated July 1, 1961. The series is part of an issue authorized by the voters in November 1958.

The proceeds of the bonds to be offered on June 14th will be used by the Division of Small Craft Harbors to make loans to cities, counties or districts for the acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance and operation of small craft harbors and related facilities.

Treasurer Betts in announcing the sale stated "California's recreational potential is probably the greatest of any area in the world. Our mountains, beaches and waterways offer limitless opportunities for outdoor activities. Small craft harbor bonds were authorized by the voters to provide the money allowing local areas to Tryouts for the recently formed Fre-Way Little League will be held at the Harvey Little League field at 186th and Western Ave. beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday, according to Sgt. John L. Garcia, president of the league.

Young ballplayers living in the area bounded by Western Ave., 223rd St., Main St., and Artesia Blvd. in the 8 to 13 years age range are being invited to attend the workouts. Registration of new players also will be accepted at that time. New registrants must show proof of birth and be accompanied by a parent.

League play is scheduled to get under way in about two weeks.

Bids are to be opened at the office of Treasurer Betts at the State Capitol in Sacramento at 10 a.m., Wednesday, June 14, 1961.
