

Officials Break Ground For Auto Club Facility

and Redondo Beach mayor William Czuleger joined with Automobile of Southern California officials Thursday morning, June 8, for groundbreaking ceremonies for the Club's new South Bay office.

Although construction of the new facility is well under way, the two civic leaders assisted in the turning of the traditional spade-full of earth to provide a formal start of building activities.

Participating in the ceremony, in addition to Czuleger and Drale, were Lyle Fladland, Auto Club district manager; Roland Riley, zone manager; William H. Newbro, public relations manager; and Walter G. Benedict, partner in the Hunter and Benedict architectural firm.

'YM' Plans High Sierra Caravan For Boys 12-15

Fun songs, amusing stories, humorous skits and quiet thoughts are all a part of the spirited campfires awaiting boys who go on the Sierra Trails Caravan, July 1-8.

Sponsored by the Torrance YMCA, the Caravan for boys 12 to 15 years old will camp at several interesting places on the eastern side of the High Sierra. Mt. Whitney, Rock Creek Lake, Mammoth Lakes, the June Lake Loop and Bodie Ghost Town are a few of the sites to be explored by the local campers. In addition, fishing, hiking, swimming, and horseback riding will be a part of the eight-day adventure.

For further information regarding this Camp and other camps for boys and girls of all ages and families may be obtained by calling the YMCA at FA 3-1272.

LOCATED on Sepulveda Blvd. at Eriel Ave., the one-story brick building will contain 7000 square feet of office space. Extensive window area of the northern exposure has been planned to provide good natural lighting with a minimum of heat from the sun.

"This new facility will enable us to provide better service for the 15000 members served by this office," said Fladland, "and give increased storage space for our stock of travel materials."

One new membership service to be made available to South Bay area residents is the World Travel department, with complete travel agency facilities for domestic and foreign travel arrangements.

of construction recently undertaken by the Auto Club in major growth areas, the South Bay office will include a general services area, small offices for conferences with Club attorneys and claims adjusters, cashiers' cage, clerical area, general sales area, employees' room, management area and central control switchboard.

Construction has been planned to allow for future construction to the west. Adequate space for member and employee parking will be provided and abundant landscaping will surround the building.

Approximately 45 persons will be employed in the office when it opens next October.

Pastor Olliff Attends Annual Circuit Confab

L. E. Olliff, resident minister for the Torrance Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, is making preparations to attend the three-day semi-annual Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses of California Circuit No. 18 at Washington High School auditorium, 108th and Denker, in Los Angeles on June 23 to 25.

Olliff is a long-time resident of this community and has been active in the ministry since 1934. He is quite well known too, inside the Union Oil refinery, since he has been employed there for the past nine years. Rev. Olliff is a painter, and like the Apostle Paul, who was an expert tent maker and worked at his trade from time to time as a means of sustaining himself, Rev. Olliff earns a livelihood for himself and family.

Mrs. Olliff is also making plans to attend not only the coming Circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at Washington High, but included in her plans is a trip to Europe this summer where she will attend large assemblies of Jehovah's Witnesses in England, France and Germany. This is Mrs. Olliff's first trip abroad and she is looking forward to it with keen anticipation.

Rev. Olliff will be busy at the Circuit Assembly, since he is the Attendant and traffic supervisor for the circuit, and in addition he will be one of the principal speakers on Friday evening, June 23. His subject is "The Office of an Overseer."
