Speaks Swats Grand Slam, Hurls Perfecto

Tim Speaks of the Redondo Knot Hole Pony League Giants hurled a no-hitter, striking out ten men to lead his team to a 15-0 rout of Cubs.

Speaks also came through in the hitting department, bashing a grand slam home run in the second inning.

At the close of the first half of play, the Giants are in first place with a 9-1 record.

Games are being played every evening at 6 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday and Saturday and Sunday at 1 p.m. at Mobil Park, 3950 W. 190th St., Torrance.

Power Squadron Reminds Boaters Of Safety Drive

The Redondo Beach Power Squadron reminds the boating public of the observance of National Safe Boating Week, July 2-8, as designated by Presidential Proclamation.

According to Dr. E. O. Wagner, safety officer of the Squadron, "Our aim is to make all boaters in the area aware of the basic rules for safety afloat and to encourage them to keep their craft properly equipped and in good condition."

"Boating safety is a matter of national importance," Dr. Wagner pointed out, "as more than 40 million persons are expected to go boating in 1961."

Legion Nine Leads Loop

Despite splitting a pair of games over the weekend, the Torrance American Legion Post No. 70 continues to lead the Bay League by a single game over the South Torrance Post No. 17.

Torrance beat Hawthorne 6 to 4, but had to come up with four runs, in the eighth inning to do the job. Bob Trevathan belted a home run with two men on to give Torrance the win.

The Torrance nine received seven hit pitching by Steve Parker and stout hitting from Trevathan and Jerry Cole.

So far growth in popularity has not resulted in a significant upsurge of accidents although continued educational efforts and individual owner attention to safety are necessary to preserve boating's good safety record.

No. 187 by a 6 to 5 score in the ninth inning, the Torrance club gave up three straight hits and the South Bay nine pushed across two runs to win 7 to 6.

Torrance plays at home Saturday at 12 noon and travels to El Segundo on Sunday for a 1:30 p.m. tilt.

Torrance 110 000 040—6 5 3
 Hawthorne 003 010 000—4 7 4
 Parker and McLean; Baldwin and Mykkänen.
 Torrance 200 400 000—6 7 2
 South Bay 311 000 002—7 11 1
 Kehoe (2); Wilson and McLean; Galley and Devan (6); Fluty.

Haggin Stakes Draw Top Juvenile Stars

What appears to be a preview of the $100,000 added Hollywood Juvenile Championship, Hollywood Park's title event for two-year-olds, will take place at the Inglewood track today when the fastest field of thoroughbred youngsters assembled so far this year in the West will meet in the Haggin Stakes.

The $20,000 added feature at five and a half furlongs for colts and geldings will bring together Mrs. Connie Ring's Private World, winner of the Cabrillo Stakes, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Nelson's Snappy Kink, Westchester Stakes champ, and other speedsters who are considered promising candidates for the hundred-grand two-year-old championship which will climax the season for the juveniles July 22.

Private World will be ridden by Bill Harmatz, who piloted him to his Cabrillo five-furlong win in :57 3/5, while Snappy Kink, will again have the services of Eddie Burns, currently the stakes winning champion at Hollywood. Snappy Kink's Westchester victory was clocked in :57 4/5.

Hoskinson Fans Thirteen Men; Pale Hose Split

With Billy Hoskinson whipping 13 men, the Braves walloped the Yankees 8 to 3 in a Torrance Little League tilt. It was a tough loss for the Yanks as their two hurlers, Billy Ernst and Deenie Gibson, allowed only one hit, but nine walks proved their undoing.

Earlier, the Braves had whipped the Indians 8 to 3 behind a route-going performance by Tommy Glover. Joel Hons walloped a four-bagger for the losers.

Rallying for five runs in the bottom of the sixth frame, the Indians edged the White Sox 7 to 6 behind the 10-strikeout performance of Joel Hons.

JOHNNY CAIRNS was the big hitting star for the Indians, going three for four at the plate, smashing a home run and driving in the game-winning run with a clutch single.

Other hitting stars were Hons, who went two for three, and Danny Stern and Bruce Read of the White Sox who both went two for four.

Dodgers Remain In First Place With 11-1 Record

At the close of the sixth week of play in the Torrance Babe Ruth League, the Dodgers continue to lead the loop with an 11-1 slate. Still holding on to second place, the Padres maintain a 10-3 record. Sharing third place at 8-5 are the Angels and the Solons.

Bashing the only home run of the week was the Beavers' Tim Marquard.

Roasting a 4-0 record, Don Coil of the Dodgers continues to lead the league's hurlers. Lloyd Gilstrap and Danny Kling of the Angels also boast perfect slates at 3-0. Jim Henderson of the Padres and Duane Shaper of the Dodgers each have one win and no defeats.

Other leading pitchers are Mike Blankenship of the Dodgers, Jim Goree of the Seals, the Elks' Mike Houston, and the Solons' John Marsden, all possessing 4-1 slates. Roy McGuire, Renee Ponce and Larry Snyder of the Padres stand at 3-1.

The common zonal Geranium, a time-honored shrub in California, is the pot gardener's delight. By reputation these tough perennials are drought resistant, but don't kid yourself. They are happier for water than for the lack of it, especially in pots. Wise pot gardeners water them every day and even feed them a complete food once a month.

REFUSING TO BE beaten, the White Sox took out their revenge on the Yankees, shutting them out, 5 to 0, as Mike Loney hurled a two-hitter. Loney's brother Greg turned in a fine catching performance. Stern, a consistent hitter for the Sox, went two for four.

The minor league games saw the Pirates trip the Giants, 10 to 8; the Phils rout the Red Sox, 18 to 2; the Angels outslug the Orioles, 22 to 15; the Stars slaughter the Cards, 29 to 7; and the Rookies beating the Padres.

Hurlers Duel Sees Cards Nip Red Sox

Taking advantage of every break, the Cards eked out a 2 to 1 win over the Red Sox in a Torrance Pony League tilt. The two hurlers, David Roberts of the Red Sox and Chris Smith of the Cards, each allowed three hits.

The league leading Indians were clobbered by the Tigers, 13 to 1, as Steve Melchert went all the way for the winners. Ticky Wroge belted his third homer of the year in the second frame.

Norm Ferm hurled the Yanks to a 4 to 2 win over the White Sox. Ferm allowed only two hits.
