establishment of a building setback line on 203rd Street. This street is slated to become part of Del Amo Blvd., a major highway.

MAJOR HIGHWAYS are normally 100 feet wide whereas the present street right of way is only 60 feet wide.

The hearing will be conducted by an examiner designated by the Planning Commission. Following the hearing a report and recommendation will be submitted to the commission which will then forward its recommendation to the City Council.

South Legion in Crosstown Win Over Rivals, 5-4

Unheralded Forrest Hunt yesterday stole the thunder from his more publicized teammates, driving in three runs to boost South Torrance Legion Post No. 170 to a 5 to 4 victory over the Torrance Legion nine.

Larry Thomas, who came in to relieve Ken Turner in the seventh inning notched the victory. The South Torrance win broke a first place tie between the two clubs, boosting the winner's record to 9-2 and dropping Torrance's slate to 8-3.

The victory was sweet revenge for South Torrance as they were beaten by the same club, 6 to 5 in an earlier tilt. Both clubs have three games left to play.

South will travel to Narbonne High to engage Lomita at noon today.

BONING UP . . . Pub pups owned by David Fairchild, 14304 Firmona Ave., Lawndale, are calling attention to the eighth annual licensed obedience trials to be sponsored by the Southwest Obedience Club at Rosecrans Playground, 149th St. and Vermont Ave., beginning at 6 p.m. on July 22. More than 300 dogs are expected to compete for the 66 class trophies and 75 breed obedience trophies.

Local Men With Army Reservists

Some 114 Army Reservists of the 5496th Quartermaster Unit Training Center at 1250 Federal Ave., Los Angeles, will depart Los Angeles International Airport today for two weeks of active duty training at Fort Lewis, Wash.

This will be the second consecutive year that the unit has taken its annual training at one of the West Coast's largest Army Post. Lt. Col. Clarence C. Pierce, unit executive officer, will direct training on the 87,000 acres that comprise the Fort Lewis complex.

The training to be conducted at Fort Lewis will attempt to simulate conditions and problems that would exist were the unit called upon to carry out this mission.

Personnel from South Los Angeles who will accompany the unit include: Major Woodrow A. Cory, 9700 11th St., Inglewood; Major Johnny R. Hutcherson, 3945 S. Norton Ave., Bell; Sergeant James C. McGee, 433 Clendon Ave., Compton; Lt. Colonel George J. Fannon, 5422 Riviera Way and Captain Richard H. Kidwell, 917 Beech Ave., Torrance.

Offers New Swim Class

"Advanced Beginner," the new Red Cross swimming course, is being added to the classes offered at Alondra County pool, 3635 Redondo Beach Blvd., according to N. S. Johnson, director of the Los Angeles County Dept. of Parks and Recreation.

Courses offered also include "Beginner" for boys and girls and "Intermediate." Free lessons with Red Cross approved instructors are included with the regular no admission policy of Alondra pool.

Registration for the class starting July 17 begins on July 10. These classes will last two weeks and include 10 lessons. Girls' Beginners starts 9:15 a.m., Boys' Beginners at 9:45 a.m., Advanced Beginners at 9:30 and Intermediate at 10 a.m.

Novice swimming competition is scheduled as a part of the swimming team training. Membership on the swim team is open to boys and girls
