Harbor Selects All Star Squad

Torrance American Little League All-Stars defeated the Harbor City All-Stars, 8-0, Wednesday night in the first of District 27 playoffs. The game was played on the Harbor City Little League diamond.

All of the runs came in the fifth inning with back-to-back homers by Ken Palke and Charles Cox highlighting the game for the winners.

Torrance will meet the Dominguez All Stars Monday at 5:45 on the Harbor City field in the second series baseball game.

Harbor City Little League will have five All Star tournament games at their field this year.

All Star games are scheduled today through Tuesday at Perry Field, 26000 Trampton, Harbor City.

Bob Perry, Harbor City president, recently announced the Little League All Star squad. The team was chosen by the six Major League managers for the 1961 season and includes:

Alternates for the squad will be Mick Wright and Pat McDowell.

Fred Okamura will manage the All Stars while the coaching chores will be handled by Clarke McCain.

Plans Made For Jewish Holidays

This year, for the first time in the history of the South Bay Area, Conservative Jews will meet to observe the High Holidays in the traditional manner, it was announced by Congregation Ner Tamid.

Rabbi Harry Hyman, former spiritual leader of Huntington Park Conservative Congregation, and Cantor A. Schechter will officiate at the services which are to be held at the Mormon Chapel, 2000 W. 174th St.

Rosh Hashona, Jewish New Year, starts at sundown on Sunday, Sept. 10, and continues through Sept. 12. The observance of the solemn Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, begins at sundown on Tuesday, Sept. 19, resuming on Wednesday Sept. 20. Services will include a Yiskor memorial.

Seats are to be made available to the general public at a nominal cost.

Education Chairman Dr. Richard Gold states that registration for Hebrew and Religious school will take place in August. A full staff of qualified teachers has been assembled, Dr. Gold adds, and the curriculum designed for the finest in traditional Jewish education.

Warrior Summer Theater Finale "Bus Stop" Ready

"I got a funny feeling I'm gonna wind up in Montana," muses Cherie in "Bus Stop." William Inge's romantic comedy playing in the Campus Theater of El Camino College July 28-29.

And if Bo Decker has his way, she will. Inge's story of the riotous romance between the headstrong Bo and the bewildered Cherie became a favorite with theater-goers when it was first successfully produced in 1955.

As the final presentation of ECC's summer theater season, "Bus Stop" brings together a cast with wide and varied experience.

SEEN AS Cherie, Susan Allin has played in eight productions at ECC and has performed with little theater groups in the Bay Area.

Joseph D'Agosta, co-director and Bo Decker, appeared on Camino's stage many times. D'Agosta is now a casting director for MGM studios.

Seen in a secondary romance, Vicki Volante as Elma Duckworth and Gary Sturm as Dr. Gerald Lyman, bring experience which includes, for Vicki, roles at ECC, Pasadena Playhouse, Hampton Players and in Cape Cod summer stock theater, plus television roles on Playhouse 90 and Studio One, July 28-29.

"BUS STOP," a success when first produced in 1955, does not pretend to be a penetrating study of humanity. Instead, it is a light-hearted presentation of people's reaction to an unusual situation.

Co-directing "Bus Stop" are Joseph D'Agosta, and Patti Hayes, actress-writer-singer who scored as Bloody Mary in ECC's recent production of "South Pacific."

The play is under the supervision of Burnett Ferguson, drama instructor, assisted by Midge Kohlmann.

SETS FOR this final play of the season are built by Les Thomas' stagecraft classes.

"Bus Stop" will play Friday and Saturday nights with curtain time set at 8:30. Tickets may be purchased at the door or reserved via phone at DAvis 4-663. Admission is one dollar.

Chris von Saltza Swims in West For Final Time

"Queen" Chris von Saltza, Santa Clara, American and Olympic Freestyle Champion, makes her final competitive West Coast appearance in the Annual Los Angeles Invitational Swimming and Diving Meet today at the famed Coliseum Olympic Swim stadium.

The blonde freestyler, the fastest woman competing in the world today, has announced that this will be her last season in competitive swimming and the invitational will be her last meet before the Nationals in Philadelphia three weeks hence.

Also competing in the three-day meet, which has attracted America's best from as far afield as Texas and Oregon, are Carolyn House, Ann Warner, both of California and members of the U.S. 1960 Olympic team. From Portland, Miss Carolyn Woods heads the team from the Multnomah Athletic club, recent winners of the 1961 Women's Indoor National Championship.

Competing in the men's events are bronze Olympic medalist, in the backstroke, Bob Bennett, Los Angeles; Murray Rose, Australia's four-time Olympic Gold medalist; Steve Clark, American Sprint Champion; Paul Hait, breaststroke competitor in the 1960 Olympics; Aubrey Burer, Union of South Africa Olympian; Nick Kirby, National High School 200 yard holder; Bob Moulton and John House, University of Southern California, and many others. Finals will start at 4 p.m. daily and prelims are at 10:00 a.m. daily.

Cancer can be cured if found in time. The American Cancer Society urges periodic health checkups.

Diving Skill Earns Torrance Boy Headlines, Reputation in Okinawa

Even as far as Okinawa in the South Pacific, a boy from Torrance is making sports headlines. The diving ability of Larry Miller, 19, a graduate of Torrance High School, is rapidly earning him the reputation of being the finest Service diver in the South Pacific Islands.

Miller's diving has led his Sukiran Rook team to a first place in the all-Army meet and a second place finish in the Inter-Service meet.

In both meets, Miller took first place in the one meter and three meter diving events. He is currently slated to begin a trip to Japan to compete with the troops stationed there.

He is presently stationed with the Sukiran Rock units of the 2nd Airborne Battle Group, 503rd Inf. combat team. He is a Private 1st class.

Immediately after graduation from Torrance in June, 1959, he enlisted in the Army. On his last leave home he married his wife, Ingrid.

Miller is the product of the conditioning of Bob Luellen, who also trained Olympic 440 Ernie Zampezi.

Local Kiwanis Clubs are participating in the campaign to raise funds for needy youngsters. In all, more than 200 clubs from Santa Barbara and from San Bernardino to Santa Monica are now selling choice box and reserved seat tickets for the game.

Through this annual game, Small points out, the foundation is able to provide medical care, permanent hospital beds, orthopedic devices and rehabilitation facilities for more than 200 youngsters. And because of the foundation's work, many of the Southland's finest physicians donate their services.

The Kiwanis Crippled Children Foundation treats needy youngsters regardless of race, treated range from leg and ar. braces to eye corrections to heart surgery. All expenses, including drugs, hospital beds, orthopedic devices, etc., are met by the Foundation.

Southlanders who purchase tickets through Kiwanis will be able to help the foundation with its outstanding program as well as see an excellent National League game, especially with the Dodgers again fighting for the championship.
