JOSEPH ZOFREA At Carson Branch

New Operations Officer Named At Carson Bank

Joseph T. Zofrea is the new operations officer at Bank of America's Main and Carson branch. He succeeds R. D. Huisenga who has joined the bank's Los Angeles Headquarters' credit staff.

The announcement was made by Richard E. Ogle, branch manager.

ZOFREA COMES to the Carson area from the smaller Pomona-Garfield branch in Montebello where he was also operations officer. He had previously served the bank in Norwalk and San Diego since joining it in 1954.

He began his career in 1952 with a bank in his native Dover, Ohio. While in that city, he was treasurer of the Knights of Columbus and member of the Elks Lodge.

ZOFREA prepared for his advancements at the American Institute of Banking from which he received the standard certificate. He was also vice president and treasurer of the institute's San Diego chapter.

He and his wife, Barbara Lee, have three children: Regina, 3; Thomas, 2; and Peter, five months.

JWV Plans Annual Picnic For Sunday

First annual picnic of the Jewish War Veterans of the U.S. South Bay Post 777 will be held Sunday beginning at 11 a.m. at El Rerito Park in Torrance.

Sodapop and ice cream will be provided free to all the children along with various supervised games for the young and old. Parents are requested to bring full picnic baskets.

This will mark the first get-together of the members and their families for an afternoon of sociability. Also invited are the friends and relations of the members and any prospective member of JWV.

Playground facilities at El Retiro Park will be available and the park is located at 125 Vista del Parque, near South High.

Chairman of the event is the Post Junior Vice Commander Ike Mizrahi, FR 5-6591. Ike is also membership chairman.
