

COUNTING THE HOURS . . . On Sept. 18 the first term of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery school will begin. Enrollments for the session must be in by Sept. 1. Anticipating the opening of the school are from left, Mrs. William Campillo and Billy and Lynn Ann Cummins, and Mrs. Miriam Kaye, director of the nursery school.

Spends Summer In Oregon

Miss Sandra Lindsay is enjoying the summer in McMinnville, Ore., where she is the guest of her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsay. Leaving June 29, Sandra spent several days in Los Altos, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Lindsay and family. While in McMinnville she has visited the Linfield College campus and points of interest in Salem and Portland. She will return to Torrance in early September. Sandra is the daughter of Major and Mrs. Keith J. Lindsay, 2301 W. 171st Street, and will be a senior at North High in September.

Guests From East

Recent hosts at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kravetz of Torrance, who entertained at a seafood dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Baur of Fairfield, Conn.

In Las Vegas

Mr. and Mrs. David Rozas, Jr., 17032 Glenburn Ave., were recent vacationers at the Silver Sands Hotel in Las Vegas.

THE THRILL OF MAGIC . . . Kirt Kirkham, noted magician who will appear in the "Tinkerbell Magic Show" this afternoon at 3 at the Broadway Del Amo pulls the rabbit out of the hat. This is one of many tricks to be performed for children attending the show on the roof.

Broadway To Present Magic Show

The Broadway Del Amo will present "The Tinkerbell Magic Party" today at 3 p. m. on the Roof. Children of all ages will delight at the "Kirkhams" who have a magic act that will baffle all who attend the show. Phyllis and Kirk Kirkham, one of the great magic acts have traveled the world over with their clever show. They learned their art under The Great Blackstone. The team has appeared on television shows such as "I Love Lucy" and The George Gobel Show, and in numerous night clubs. Free refreshments, balloons, and door prizes will be given to all children who attend. Tickets may be obtained in the Sub-Teen Department of The Broadway Del Amo or at the time of the show. There is no charge.

Honored at Party in Mexico

Miss Becky Tapia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tapia, 3511 W. 226th St., who is spending the summer in Guadalajara, Mexico, celebrated a birthday last Saturday. She was guest of honor at a party given by her hosts, Mayor and Mrs. Jorge Agnesi and daughter, Christina, at the summer home at Chapala Lake. During her stay there, Becky has also been a guest of the American Consul A. B. Horn. She will return in September to enter school.

Dinner Party

Enjoying a seafood dinner together at Marineland restaurant recently were Miss Shirley Litchfield of Torrance, Miss Diane Wilson of Redondo Beach, Mrs. Leonard Heimall of Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Northrop of Torrance, who were marking their third wedding anniversary.

Mrs. M. Kaye Will Direct Coop Nursery

Mrs. Miriam Kaye, a Cornell University graduate, has been appointed by the Adult Education Department of the Torrance Unified School District to direct the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School. Mrs. Kaye directed a nursery school in New Jersey before teaching Parent Education in the Los Angeles City Adult program last year.

Preparations for the fall term have included meetings with the board to tentatively set up the Monday evening parents program. Plans include a variety of guest speakers, group discussions and related nursery school demonstrations. Films will be scheduled and various field trip activities have been suggested for the children and parents.

The program is designed to meet the needs of both parents and children. Each mother devotes one morning to the four day a week program and a fathers' workshop is scheduled once a month.

The Cooperative Nursery is open to families which include pre-school children ages 3 to 5 and is a non-profit non-sectarian group under the Adult Education Dept. of the Torrance Unified School District. Anyone interested in acquiring further information regarding the school may contact Mrs. Al McIntyre, 4615 Carson St., Torrance.

Anniversary

Dr. and Mrs. James C. Jensen Jr. of Torrance marked their 19th wedding anniversary with a dinner party at The Three Lions Restaurant.

Family Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Heinlein and children, Ann Louise and David, 2130 W. 180th Pl., accompanied by Rex Whisnand, spent last Sunday picnicking at Lake Elizabeth.

Rowes Hosts

A dinner party at the Pen & Quill restaurant in Manhattan Beach was given by Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Rowe of Hollywood Riviera to celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary. Guests included Mrs. Rowe's mother, Mrs. Rae McNaughton of Palos Verdes Estates.

Richard Bans Celebrate 34th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ban, long time residents of Torrance, recently celebrated the 34th anniversary of their wedding with a family party at a restaurant in Long Beach. Honoring their parents were the couple's two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Glascock and Mrs. Robert Lessman and their families. Joseph Ban, their son, and his family were unable to attend because of illness.

The Bans' three children were all born in the Torrance area and attended the local schools. Mr. Ban worked for many years at National Supply before retiring several years ago. He is a member of the Nativity Holy Name Society and Knights of Columbus.

Mrs. Ban is employed by Harbor General Hospital. She is a member of the Nativity Altar Society and Catholic Daughters of America of which she is a Past Grand Regent of the local Court St. Catherine. At present, she serves as a trustee of the court and is also District Deputy to four other courts. The couple reside at 1412 Crenshaw Blvd. and are the proud grandparents of 12 grandchildren.

OES Chapter Marks 40th Anniversary

Torrance Chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star, celebrated its 40th anniversary on July 20 at the Torrance Masonic Temple.

Ray Shaffer, worthy patron, opened the meeting. Substitute officers were Edna Babcock, organist; Charles Myers, flag bearer and Archer Lewis, sentinel.

Helen and Lawrence Cole, worthy matron and patron of the Queen Esther chapter, St. Paul Park, Minn., were given special escort and presented in the East.

Under regular escort, the following past matrons and patrons were presented: Edna Babcock, Bernice Ruppel, Vivian and Fred Cook, Florence Viellenave, Evelyn Hawland, Hazel Runn, Ray Lougee, Marguerite and Edward Morgon, Jean and Ernest Mosher and Archer Lewis, all of Torrance.

The business meeting was conducted by Francis Reisert, worthy matron and Ray

Shaffer, worthy patron. At the close of chapter, refreshments including a birthday cake were served in the banquet room by Doris and Blain Willett, chairmen, and their committee.

Dinner Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Greve of Hollywood Riviera entertained recently at Marineland for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swann of Torrance, who were observing their fifth wedding anniversary. The party was held in the "Penguin Room."
