Lithuanian Refugee Here For Address on Sept. 6

Vladas Hriskevicius, a Lithuanian refugee, will speak to the Lutheran Liberty League at Resurrection Lutheran Church on Sept. 6 at 7:30 p.m. Hriskevicius has adopted the name of John Rees since coming to the United States. Rees will describe for his audience the eyewitness accounts of Communist terror and brutality which he has seen both in Russia and in his native Lithuania. He was born in 1903 and witnessed the Bolshevik seizure of Russia in 1917.

FLEEING the advancing Communist menace in 1944, Rees found refuge in Bonn, Germany, after the allied victory in World War II. He has worked for British intelligence position as a student there and as a victim of Red oppression in his native land. Three times he has tried to return to Lithuania, but each time he has been driven out again by the Communists.

Rees speaks six languages and is a well-known political observer and writer. He is well equipped to tell of the terror of the Red regime from his first-hand experiences.

THE PUBLIC is invited to hear the address. No admission will be charged, but a free will offering will be taken at the close of the evening. The Resurrection Lutheran Church is located at 330 Palos Verdes Blvd., in the Hollywood Riviera section of Torrance.

Rees has spoken before many civic and church groups in the United States and in Europe.

NHS Assistant Principal Named UC Extension Representative

University of California officials this week announced the establishment of a major new center of the University Extension at North High School and simultaneously named Leonard F. Dalton, North High assistant principal, as the local representative. The new center will serve the rapidly expanding population center in the South Bay and Torrance area.

The university plans the largest group of extension classes to be conducted in this area for North High School. Classes will begin during the week of Sept. 18. Times for all classes will be from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

ADVANCE registration materials can be obtained by writing to the University Extension, UCLA. The telephone number there is BR 2-6161, extension 721.

Plans for a class in "General Pediatrics," to be given at the Harbor General Hospital, were also announced. The class will begin Sept. 14 and continue through Dec. 7.

THE UNIVERSITY Extension is a service of the University of California and is open to the general public. Courses receive full unit credit and may be taken to study for a bachelor's degree or an advance degree. Fees are paid in accordance with the classes and number of units taken.

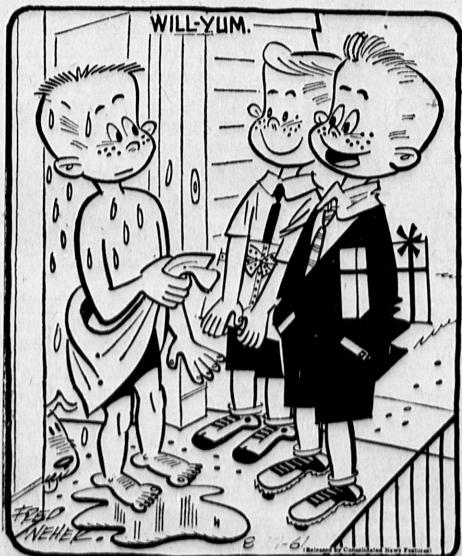

Further information regarding registration, classes, fees or other questions may be obtained from the University Extension, University of California at Los Angeles, or by telephoning BRadshaw 2-6161, extension 721.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION REP... Leonard F. Dalton, assistant principal at North High School, has been named local representation for the University of California Extension center to be set up at North High. Dr. Richard Baisden of UCLA, in charge of extension campus and centers, is shown here discussing the problems which the Extension center will face. This is the first major University Extension Center in the South Bay.

The Southern California Chapter, National Kidney Disease foundation announces that it has funds available for research. Applications may be made for grants to support research in any aspect of renal disease, renal physiology and allied fields. The deadline for grant applications is Oct. 1, 1961. These may be obtained by phoning WEBster 6-5229 or writing to the National Kidney Disease foundation, 1227 1/2 S. La Brea Ave., Los Angeles 19.
