

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"It Takes Maturity To Be Good Parents"

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are in our early thirties. When we married we decided we didn't want any children. Neither of us has changed his mind. In fact, the more we see of the spoiled, demanding kids of our friends, the happier we are with our decision.

Invariably, the most neurotic, worn-out mothers are the ones who take me aside and say, "You ought to have two or three little ones." I've often been tempted to tell them that I think they are envious of the orderly, uncomplicated life we lead and I wish they would mind their own business.

Do you feel that every married couple should have children, Ann? To be perfectly frank, we think kids are a pain in the neck.—HIM AND ME

Dear Him and Me: It takes maturity and unselfishness to be good parents. A couple who considers children "a pain in the neck" could contribute very little to the emotional health of a child. People who feel as you do should not bring children into the world. It's unfair to the kids.

Dear Ann Landers: Our 21-year-old daughter is pretty, and she has an excellent position with a good firm. She has never given us a moment's trouble.

Four months ago she started to go with a man who is in charge of a roaming magazine crew. He had no permanent address and seemed too old and too slick for her. When she began to get phone calls at odd hours (urgent pleas for money) and telegrams asking for "a little financial help" we tried to get her to see that this man wasn't for her.

Well, we failed. She told us last week that she's going to marry him. He is quitting the crew but has no other job in sight. She plans to keep on working and she wants us to repaid her bedroom and buy new furniture so they can live with us. We are heartbroken over this. What can we do? —M & D

Dear M & D: Your daughter is of legal age and there's nothing you can do but let her make her own bed. But she doesn't have to be in your home.

Tell the girl she wants to marry this man she's on her own. It might scare some sense into her head.

Dear Ann Landers: Before my husband and I met he was engaged to another girl. He bought her a beautiful diamond ring worth $600. When she left town the girl took the ring with her. He still owes $300 on the ring.

I work and we split everything fifty-fifty. All the bills are paid from our joint pay- (Continued on Page 14)

Annual Portuguese Bend Horse Show Opens with 'Pony Island Promenade'

Annual Portuguese Bend National Horse Show will be staged this year on Sept. 23 and 24 at the Portuguese Bend Riding Club on Narcissa Drive in Portuguese Bend. Proceeds from this gala social event, sponsored by the Palos Verdes Peninsula Committee of the Children's Hospital, benefit the building fund for the hospital.

Mrs. Harry H. Wetzel, Jr. and Mrs. Andrew D. Shaw are serving as co-chairmen for the show. Mrs. James Franks is president of the Committee.

Festive opening for the weekend affair will be the "Pony Island" Promenade to be held Friday evening Sept. 22 at Abalone Cove. Chairmen for this party are Mrs. Rubel McKelvey and Mrs. Albert W. Day.

Attend District Installation

Attending the installation dinner of District 4LI at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles on Aug. 19 were the following Lions and Lionesses of Torrance: Messrs. and Mmes. William King, Fred Boren, Ralph Morris, Clarence Clark, Paul Diamond and A. F. R. Ewalt.

Paul Diamond is student speaker chairman for the Harbor District and Mr. Ewalt is music chairman.

William King is president of the Torrance Lions club and Mrs. Ewalt is president of the Lioness club.

The Equine Belle of the 1890s, who last year bid guests to the "Horse Opera Ball" this year dons bathing middy and ruffled cap to extend invitations to the "Pony Island" Promenade.

Costumes for the evening will be the "sporty" attire that the gay blades of the turn of the century and their Gibson Girls wore on this kind of outing.

Guests will be greeted by music of a callopo as they are brought from their cars by fringed-top surreys. The "boardway" bright with strings of lights, will lie along the beach and a professional barker will direct strollers to the games of skill. A shore dinner deluxe will be served buffet style to be followed by "dancing under the stars" with music by Ken Coulter

Highlight of the evening will be the rollicking entrance of a Dixieland band, decked out in boaters and striped blazers playing as they ride in on a tailgate, to present the concert. "The Channel Island Guppies" are a group of local yachtsmen well known for their excellent Dixieland music.

Palos Verdes Peninsula Committee, founded in 1957 for the sole purpose of raising money for Children's Hospital, has sponsored the National Horse Show for the past four years, each year almost doubling the proceeds. Last year's contribution was one of the highest ever made to the hospital.

Bride's Father Officiates At Wedding Of Mary Sippel and Jerrell Wood

Sanctuary of the First Christian Church was banked with white gladioli, stock and chrysanthemums last Friday evening for the eight o'clock ceremony uniting Miss Mary Sippel and Jerrell Wood. The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Sippel, 2914 Onrado. Rev. Sippel is pastor of the First Christian Church. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, 22809 Ocean Ave.

Rev. Sippel escorted his daughter to the altar and officiated at the marriage ceremony. The bride was gowned in a princess creation of Chantilly lace fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt of lace was ballerina length. Her silk illusion veil cascaded from a pearl crown and she carried a crescent bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Molly McCalla of Lawrence, Kans. was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jeannie Wyckoff of Orange and Miss Carolyn Campbell of Torrance. All of the attendants wore aqua taffeta gowns and carried white lace fans with white and aqua carnations.

Fred Balow performed the duties of best man and ushers were Harry Sippel, Stewart Gonta, Harold Pedersen and Gerald Sherborne.

Kenneth Ford of Orange, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Miss Diana Scott who sang "The Greatest of These is Love." Miss Nancy Breihan of Redlands sang Dunlap's "Wedding Prayer" and Miss Scott and Miss Breihan sang the benediction.

A reception followed in Friendship Hall where a three tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table. Peggy Neely presided at the punch bowl and Miss Anita Johnson served coffee. Miss Joyce Harkias was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are now on a honeymoon trip to Oregon. Their new home will be in Bellflower.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in 1958 and is a senior at Chapman College at Orange. Mr. Wood, a 1956 graduate of Torrance High School, attended El Camino College.
