

Ann Landers

men who are in the same predicament? I need male companionship. —MRS. LONESOME.

Dear Mrs. Lonesome: You must be a new reader. I've said it dozens of times but I'll say it again for you. If you want to catch trout don't fish in the bath tub.

Join study groups, an adult education class, become active in volunteer work, or the political party of your choice. Involve yourself in civic projects. Work part time and become a part of the business world. In other words — go where the trout are, and good luck to you.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry — Is It Love Or Sex?" enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

N. F. Massas Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas F. Massa, 19305 Ronald Ave. Torrance have celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary recently.

A trip to San Francisco and Yosemite marked their anniversary and upon their return they were feted at a surprise patio reception when 150 guests assembled to congratulate them.

The party was planned by the couple's two sons and a daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Massa of Lawndale and Darwin Massa of Torrance.

Assisting with the party were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rozzolini, Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Romeo, Lawndale; Mr. and Mrs. S. Massa, Hawthorne; and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Achterman of Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Massa came to California in 1947 from Buffalo, New York.

Their two sons are both graduates of Leuzinger High school. Two little granddaughters also add to their happiness.

A complete set of patio furniture along with other gifts were presented to the honored couple at the reception.

Unit Marks Anniversary

Torrance Chapter 44, Women of the Moose, celebrated its 26th anniversary on Aug. 2.

Program for the evening included the initiation of Miss Helen Colbert in honor of Mrs. Howard Erikson, past deputy grand regent from San Pedro, speaker for the evening.

Special guests were members of the College of Regents, Mrs. Noel Peacock, Miss Anna Wilkins, Miss Ruth Kidd, Mrs. Lester Rinehart, Mrs. Stanley Heiman and Mrs. George Clay.

Charter members, Ruth Kidd, Anna Wilkins and Mrs. Frank Smith were given special honor.

Mrs. Ernest Meyer was pianist for the evening.

Refreshments were served following the open meeting. The chapter was presented with a birthday cake from the Loyal Order of Moose.

For Scholarship Fund

AAUW Will Sponsor Continental Showing

Continental atmosphere will prevail when the American Association of University Women, Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, stages a French-Italian fashion show and luncheon, Wednesday, Oct. 4, for the benefit of its fellowships program.

Setting for the noon affair will be the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro.

The 1961 fall-winter collection of Ohrbach's French and Italian imports will be presented, with eight Los Angeles top models participating. This collection will only be on the west coast two weeks before going to New York.

Funds raised by the function will go toward supporting the more than 40 national fellowships awarded annually by AAUW and the 30 international grants given each year. Representing 31 countries, 443 women have so far been able to study in the United States through AAUW international grants.

In charge of the benefit affair is Mrs. William C. Stuart, branch fellowships chairman. Commentator for the show will be Miss Gloria Lopez, Ohrbach's fashion coordinator. Background music will be provided by Dick Rossom, well known South Bay area pianist.

Working on decorations to carry out the French-Italian theme are Mrs. Harry G. Peterson, arts group chairman; Mrs. Leo M. Huffman, Mrs. Ragnar Thorensen and Mrs. Donald Dean. In charge of tickets and door prizes are Mrs. Dwight R. Hayes and Mrs. Mabelle I. Roath. Handling seating arrangements will be Mrs. Harold O. Simar, Mrs. Lee E. Garwood and Mrs. Carl Brewster.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mmes James Huesdens, H. C. McLendon, Joseph W. Vogt, Joseph R. Rensch, or Donald S. Melstrom. The public is invited.

Sisterhood Opens Year

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will hold its first meeting of the fall season on Thursday Sept. 1 at 8 p.m. at the new Temple Menorah Bldg., 1101 Camino Real, Redondo.

Greeting new members and getting reacquainted with old friends will be Rabbi Henri Front, Mrs. Robert Eckhouse, president, and Mmes George Lewison, Earle Sumpter, Albert Carmona and Ira Schwartz.

A short business meeting will be followed by a social hour during which a skit will be presented.

Anyone desiring further information or transportation may call Mrs. George Lewison or Mrs. Albert Carmona.

Dinner Parties

Mrs. Martha McGinnis of Torrance was the hostess at a dinner party at the Three Lions Restaurant, honoring Mrs. Ruth E. Farrell on her birthday.

On the same evening, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Moran, also of Torrance, marked their 5th wedding anniversary at a cocktail and dinner gathering.
